Robert McCausland, Ltd.
141-143 Spadina Avenue, TORONTO

The Rev. Harry Drew, rector of Hawarden since 1894, and son-in-law of the late Mr. W. E. Gladstone, died on March 31st. He was curate of Hawarden 1883-93, and served as first warden of St. Dennis's Hostel and Library, founded by Mr. Gladstone for the promotion of sacred study.

The Rev. Charles Mockridge, rector of All Saints', Dorchester, Boston, Mass., was called Home on the evening of Monday in Holy Week at the residence of his brother, the Rev. John Mockridge, rector of St. Paul's, Louisville, Ky. He was one of the four sons of the Rev. Canon C. H. Mockridge, D.D., all of whom are priests of the Church. The deceased was born 36 years ago and was a graduate of Trinity College, Toronto. He was ordained deacon by the Lord Bishop of Niagara in 1897, and was priested the following year. He spent by far the greater part of his clerical life in the United States. Two years ago he was appointed rector of All Saints', Dorchester. Besides his parents, three brothers and a sister, he is survived by his wife who was formerly Miss Mary J. Tyler, of Louisville, Ky. The funeral services were held in St. Paul's, Louisville. They were conducted by the Bishop of the diocese and some of the Louisville clergy, six of whom acted as pallbearers. The interment took place in Cave Hill Cemetery. Early in the morning of the day of the funeral a special celebration of the Holy Communion was held in the church, at which the Bishop was the celebrant. At the hour of the funeral at Louisville the Burial Office was said in the parish of All Saints', Ashmount, Boston, in which church the deceased clergyman was married only seven weeks ago. Bishop Laurence read the Office, and following the service there was a Requiem celebration of the Holy Eucharist, which was conducted by the curate of the parish, the Rev. H. St. George Burwill. A very large congregation was present. It is probable that a memorial service will be held at some future date. On the same day at 11 o'clock a similar service was held in St. John's, Roxbury, where the late Mr. Mockridge was stationed before he came to Ashmount. This service was conducted by the Rev. F. W. Fitts.
