—The GAZETTE will be given to Jar. I, 1901, for the small sum of one $.

FOUND—In Mildmay last Friday morning, an overcoat, owner can have same by proving property and paying for this notice.

—Jacob J. Guitard of Windsor came here on Monday night to see his uncles, Messrs. Jacob Palm and Jacob Guitard, who are ill.

—Aaron Davis left on Monday to visit friends in Clifford. We learn that he intends to establish a business in Mt. Forest.

—Three young men from Brant gave an entertainment in the town hall last Thursday evening, but the affair was not properly advertised, and the audience was small but very appreciative. They put up at the Royal, and as they could not afford two rooms, all had to pile into the one bed.

—Mr. Louis Kramer, who has been teaching at Carlsruhe, Carrick Tp., for five or six years, has resigned to accept a position in Woolwick Tp., Waterloo County. Mr. Kramer was a presiding examiner at the Entrance and P. S. L. examinations in Chesley this year and last.

—The MILDWAY GAZETTE to the end of the century for $1.00.

Corn! Corn!

Corn and corn chop always on hand at our mill. GLEBE & SEILING.

—We have made arrangements to send to new subscribers the "Toronto Daily Star" and the "Mildmay Gazette" for one year for $1.50.

—Geo. Lambert was successful in shooting a deer, during his short visit to Muskoka, but as the freight rates are so high, he left the animal with his brother.

—Louis Miller, who was so badly hurt while chopping a tree last Monday, died on Wednesday of last week. Deceased was 27 years of age.

—Wesley Chittick, a young man who formerly resided at Belmore, was asphyxiated by gas last Thursday night in a hotel at Winnipeg. Deceased's brother conducts a blacksmith shop in Belmore.

—A sudden death occurred on the 9th concession on Sunday. On Saturday night Mr. John Schmidt went to bed apparently in good health, but was found dead in his bed on Sunday morning. Deceased was 78 years of age. His wife preceded him about nine years ago.

Owen Sound is getting tougher. By reason of the numerous riffling attacks which have been made on both sexes in that town recently, many of the female portion of the population are timid about going out alone in the evenings.

—A resident of Carrick was fined $10 last week for enclosing a letter in a parcel. The parcel went to the dead letter office, and the party was warned not to offend again. However the same act was committed again with the above result.

—Nathaniel Hallman of Hanover, travelling agent of the Seiling Furniture factory of Walkerton, was married at Hanover last Tuesday to Miss Mary Telger. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Schmitt. The groom is well known among the young people of Mildmay, who extend congratulations.

—Last Thursday a load of young people from Mildmay spent a pleasant evening at the residence of Seigmund Emel, Deemerton, tripping the light fantastic. Johnny Bahlman tripped and fell down into the cellar and broke his arm. Johnny is clerk at the Royal stable and his beaming countenance will be greatly missed.

—Last Friday morning while some of the children were playing in the basement of the public school, Bella McCulloch tripped and fell, her head striking the wall. She sustained a cut about five inches in length, which laid bare the skull. Seven stitches were required to close the wound and the patient is recovering nicely.

—Last evening Mr. J. T. Rose, station agent, received a beautiful gold watch chain and locket, and a handsome pair of gold cuff buttons, accompanied by an address, which was forwarded to him by his friends in Brucefield. On the locket was engraved "From Brucefield Friends." Mr. Rose acted as station agent for nine years in Brucefield, and these valuable presents testify to the high esteem in which he was held.

—Miss Rose Herringer of Walkerton spent Sunday at her home here.

—Messrs. George and Reed of Listowel spent Sunday at the Commercial.

—Misses Traynor and Sutton of Hanover visited friends in town this week.

—Wm. Johnston has returned from Brussels where he has been for the past month.

—Uncle Palm, who has such a serious fall last week, has been very ill, but we are glad to report that he is recovering.

—The young people of the R. C. church are practicing for their concert, which is to be held about Xmas.

—Mr. M. Goetz of Walkerton was in town on Thursday last. He made the trip on his wheel.

—Geo. Roswell has sold his farm on the 2nd concession to Richard Wilton. Mr. Roswell intends to move back to Brant.

—A man named Herbert Pettin was arrested on Saturday morning at Detroit. He is wanted at Walkerton for the alleged theft of a horse and buggy.

—Mr. J. H. Moore of Brucefield was in town this week packing up his furniture, and the family left on Tuesday. Harry acted as reliever at Brucefield during his father's absence.

—J. J. Weinert, auctioneer of Neustadt, was in town on Tuesday, and took charge of Ig. Beechie's sale. Everything went for good prices.

—H. E. Liesemer, the tailor, has leased the store, adjoining J. V. Berscht's shoe store, and purposes moving into the new quarters next week.

—The tax collector has almost completed his duties, and this week will probably see all the taxes collected for another year.
