NEWS OF THE WORLD.

All the important events of the week ending on Tuesday evening.

The Salvation Army has made over seven hundred converts in the city of Guelph.

A fatal disease with the symptoms of pinkeye is attacking horses in some parts of Essex County.

The annual convention of the Dominion Alliance will be held in Toronto, January 20, 21 and 22.

Arrangements have been made at Quebec for the printing of 100,000 copies of the Scott Act in the French language.

The Bothwell deep oil well is 1,498 feet deep; Salt was found at 1,406 feet. Ninety feet of pure salt has been struck, and the end is not yet.

Notice is given in the Canada Gazette that the Temperance Act will go into force in Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry on the expiry of the present licenses.

In the course of a Salvation Army meeting at Ancaster Town Hall, Alfred Green sprinkled cayenne pepper on the stove. The fine and costs amounted to $22.35.

During the past year 2,455 patents were granted in Canada. The amount of fees received was $69,530, as against $73,023.20 in the previous year.

A little child of an East Sandwich farmer named Peters was terribly burned Thursday by its clothes catching fire from the grate.

The Montreal Licensed Victuallers Association have decided to oppose all candidates for municipal offices who do not support the liquor traffic.

A verdict of wilful murder has been found by the coroner's jury against Louis Dupel, who shot Edward Burke, a Buckingham farmer. Dupel gave himself up and is now in jail.

News from the Ottawa shanties is to the effect that the soft weather is operating greatly against lumbering operations. Should the present weather continue the lumbermen will be in a dilemma about getting out their logs.

Mrs. J. R. Smith, of Brussels, has been elected a school trustee.

William Martin, a prominent contractor of Black Rock, has been arrested for smuggling 200 pounds of butter from Canada.

The English expedition is slowly forcing its way up the Nile, and if no serious reverses occur will soon be in sight of Khartoum.

The conversion of Strathroy high school to a collegiate institute will be celebrated by a banquet in honor of Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education.

The rapid thaw of the past week caused a sudden rise in the St. Lawrence, threatening an inundation at Montreal, the cellars along the water front being filled with water.

At the Conservative convention for Renfrew, John A. Macdonald, editor of the Arnprior Chronicle, was selected as the candidate to oppose Dr. Dowling at the election to be held on the 27th inst.

There are, it is said, two thousand armed socialists in Chicago, who drill secretly and are ready for any emergency. A great socialistic upheaval is predicted in the States, growing out of the oppression of the working classes.

Mr. J. Taylor, of Notawa, has discovered in the Collingwood mountains the best gold mine in America. gentleman from California offered Mr.
Taylor $20,000 if he would show him where he found the gold, but the offer was declined.

Edward Ennis dropped through a hole in the ice at Kingston, on Saturday and the current carried him fully twelve yards, when he popped up in another place and scrambled out.
His finger nails were badly torn clutching at the ice while being forced along by the current.

While Dr. Sullivan and J. H. Metcalfe, M. P. P., were crossing from Bath to Amherst Island, their guide broke through the ice. They tied their braces together, threw the line to him and drew him out. Mr. Metcalfe broke through the ice once, also, but did not get below his waist.

Gen. Grant declines to accept the subscription which Cyrus W. Field and others have been getting up for his benefit. Vanderbilt, in a letter to Mrs. Grant, presented her with the debt and judgments he holds against the General, amounting to $150,000.
The gift was politely declined.

French transports crowded with invalid soldiers are reported as arriving at Saigon, and cholera and typhoid fever are reported as ravaging the troops in Tonquin. The French have also met with reverses in Madagascar, and it is evident that the country is suffering more from its warlike expeditions than the enemy against whom they are directed.

The Queen's bench divisional court, has sustained the judgment giving Kivner, of Whitby, damages against the Phoenix lodge of Oddfellows for damages sustained while going through the initiatory ceremony.
The judge held that the lodge was clearly liable for Kiver's injuries.
This ought to teach secret societies to be more careful in future.
