

DISCONTENT SPREADING IN BRITISH INDIA.

The Landholders and Bengal Aristocracy Also Said to be Disaffected.

New York, July 8.—A London despatch to the Sun says that Indian despatches represent the trouble in India as increasing. A correspondent who has just returned to Calcutta from three tours of the most disaffected districts in Bengal telegraphs that the seriousness of the situation is hardly realized by the Europeans in India or at home. The discontent has spread among the landholders and the Bengal aristocracy as well as among the peasants and coolies.

An active organization, known as National Volunteers, which has branches in almost every town and village, is being trained in archery and sword exercise by well-paid instructors. They preach everywhere revolt against the British, and actively push the boycott of British goods. Men who cannot be threatened and who still maintain relations with English officials are punished by a social boycott, the deadliest weapon that can be employed against a Hindu.

Hundreds of tales of lawlessness and oppression by the National Volunteers come from every district. The rural police are too weak or too disaffected to take action. The people are gradually losing respect for order and authority. Several land owners have usurped executive and administrative powers by imprisoning tenants.

In the Barisal district committees of public safety have been formed. These committees hold judicial inquiries, summon witnesses and punish offenders. The Government has exhausted its reserve of police and has borrowed companies of Gurkhas from Assam and military police from other provinces. These are posted in small batches about the country, but the unable to prevent the persecution of loyalists.

The worst feature of the situation is the growing number of assaults on Europeans. Europeans go about armed with revolvers. European passengers carry shot-guns in trains. Ladies are afraid to travel on the Assam-Bengal Railway. A traffic officer said there was danger of certain sections of the line being closed owing to the reluctance of guards and drivers to take trains out.

The impression is gaining strength that firearms are filtering into Eastern Bengal. All over Bengal national schools, financed entirely by Bengalis and disclaiming all connection with the Government, are springing up.

MAN RODE ON A STREET CAR

And Was Waylaid and His Skull Fractured.

San Francisco, July 8.—With his skull fractured and face terribly beaten up, George McGuire, a local manager of Broadstreet's, was found in a dying condition early to-day at Jackson and Fillmore streets. According to the story told to the police, McGuire alighted from a street car and started to walk to his house, a distance of three blocks. As he started up the street he was accosted by a couple of men who, according to a woman who witnessed the affair, asked McGuire if he had ridden on the car. Upon his replying in the affirmative he was set upon by the men and beaten into unconsciousness. The police have no clues as to his assailants.

BARTELS SKIPS.

SYRACUSE BREWER ESCAPED DURING ARGUMENT IN COURT.

He Got Away From Officer Who Brought Him Over to Osgood Hall—Appeal Proceedings Went On in His Absence.

Toronto despatch: Hermann Bartel, the former wealthy brewer of Syracuse, who has been in Welland jail for some weeks awaiting extradition to the United States to answer a charge of perjury, escaped from Sheriff James Smith, of Welland, yesterday at noon at Osgood Hall in this city. Bartels was still at large last night, with police officers of the United States and Canada on the lookout for him. He knows Canada thoroughly, he having lived at various points for some months prior to his arrest at Niagara Falls.

Bartels was brought to Toronto on the order of Mr. Justice Riddell, who was to hear habeas corpus proceedings in an appeal against the decision of Judge Wells, of Welland, who ordered the man into the custody of Mr. T. H. Walker, Under Sheriff of Cayuga County, New York State. District Attorney R. J. Burritt was also at the hall watching the proceedings.

While the argument of the prisoner's counsel, Mr. H. H. Dewar, K.C., was going on the man quietly slipped out of the door, and boarding a car suddenly vanished. After a thorough search of the corridors had been made, the city police were notified. Being an old man, Bartels had been allowed a little more liberty than is usual in such cases.

Bartels belongs to Syracuse, and is about 60 years old. He was convicted at Auburn, N.Y., on the charge of attempted murder, and is now serving a term of 15 years in the State Prison.

Had Been Speculating in Stocks With Bank's Money Under the Name of Martin Chase—He Had Sustained Heavy Losses.

New York, July 8.—A drag-net has been spread throughout the United States, Canada, Europe and South America for Chester B. Runyan, the assistant paying teller of the Windsor Trust Company, who fled on Saturday last with $90,000 of stolen money. That Runyan was not the immaculate young man that his employers thought he was, up to the day he went off with his dress suit case stuffed with the Trust Company's money, is an established fact. For weeks before his disappearance he had been speculating in stocks under the name of Martin Chase. Speculative accounts that he carried with three stock brokerage houses have been unearthed.

He had sustained heavy losses in these ventures, and at least two weeks before he fled had stolen $10,000 to make good his margin accounts. It is believed the $10,000 was stolen at various times and the thefts may have extended over a period of several months. On July 1, the period when the checking up of the Trust Company's cash on hand would have revealed the shortage, it is believed Runyan decided to get away with all he could.

THE GO-DEVIL

CAPTURED IN THE GUGGENHEIM FIGHT—THE LOSSES.

Seattle, Wash., July 8.—A despatch to the Post-Intelligencer from Valdez, Alaska, says one man is dead, another is fatally injured, and nine are seriously wounded as the result of a first conflict between the Guggenheim and the Bruner interests at Katalla on Wednesday. The fight is over the right of way which the Bruner forces are protecting. The Guggenheim interests stationed detachments of armed men at points commanding the disputed ground early in the day. Tony Depaschal, in charge of a party of laborers, started out to lay track over the Bruner right of way under cover of a fire from these camps. A brisk fire was opened from the Bruner camp, but Depaschal's men succeeded in capturing the steel "go-devil" on which the Bruner camp had relied to destroy the work done by their opponents.

Reports say the Bruner interests are making every endeavor to have Governor Hoggatt order troops to the scene of hostilities.

TEMPERANCE IN SCHOOLS.

Recommendation of Medical Council at Kingston.

Kingston despatch: The Ontario Medical Council to-day placed its record as strongly desirous that hygiene and temperance should be subjects of instruction in Ontario public schools and will so advise the Minister of Education.

The doctors of the Medical Council do not think the fifth year of training for medical students is well provided for. Dr. Britton, Toronto, moved for a special committee to look into the matter. Others thought the educational committee should do the investigating.

After a lively debate the motion was lost, 13 to 10. The educational committee will act.

The Council will likely decide on a site for its new building in Toronto, meantime doing business at 83 Isabella street.

FRENCH SOLDIERS MUTINOUS.

Men Drafted for Service in Africa and Corsica as Penalty.

Paris, July 8.—Reports of mutinies among regimental companies at Larzac have been common during the last week. They have always been met by official denials and the production of commanding officers' reports that all was well in the camp.

That this was not altogether true is shown by an official statement yesterday to the effect that about a hundred men belonging to the 100th Regiment were being sent away to be redistributed among other regiments.

It is officially said that eleven of them have gone to Marseilles, whence they will be transferred to Corsican and African stations.

PEACE CONFERENCE.

GERMANY ACCEPTED FRANCE'S IDEA ON RIGHTS OF NEUTRALS.

The Hague, July 8.—The sub-committee of the peace conference on rights and duties of neutral powers in times of war met this morning. M. Nelidoff, president of the conference, who had recovered from his indisposition, was present.

KAÏD SIR HARRY MACLEAN, Commander of Morocco Sultan's Body Guard, who has been made a captive by Raisuli, the bandit.

PUT BAN ON THE INSANE.

NEW ARRIVALS SHOULD BE MENTALLY FIT.

Government Inspectors Emphasize the Need for a Close Inspection and New Regulations—Saving Effected by Deportation.

Toronto, July 8.—The statement is made in the annual report of the Inspector of Prisons and Public Charities, that of the 54 male patients admitted to Toronto Asylum no less than 37 were of foreign birth, the majority of these having arrived in Canada recently. The balance were Canadians. Until regulations are established by the Dominion Government that will require, in addition to the presentation by the immigrants of a certificate signed by the authorities showing his residence and previous history, and that mentally and physically he is a fit subject to become a citizen of this country. Otherwise the increase of insanity and crime will continue, and the country will be put to the enormous expense of maintaining these defectives, the report states. It is estimated that the average life of an insane person in the asylum is about 22 years, and that it costs the Government about $2,000 for that period. The pecuniary benefit of deportation is at once apparent, this year's work alone representing a saving of $38,000.

A BOLD BREAK.

United States Prisoners at Chatham Seek Freedom.

Chatham despatch: Two Americans are in jail here awaiting sentence for attempted forgery on the Sovereign Bank, Tilbury, and celebrated his 44th birthday about 6:30 by making a determined break for liberty. Arthur Smith, from Knox, Pa., and Edwin Baldwin, from Wainfield, Ohio, were the participants, and their term will probably be considerably extended by reason of their escape, which almost cost a life.

The first victim was Turnkey Somerville. The turnkey was entering the cell in which the two were confined. After undoing one lock and placing it on the floor while he unlocked another fastening, he turned his back on the two men for the moment. The opportunity was seized to attack him from behind, and one of them seized the lock and knocked him down with it, leaving him insensible and bleeding.

Governor Davidson hearing the noise came at once to the scene and the assailants, evidently thinking the governor armed, though he was not, allowed him to wrest the key of the lock from one of them and summon assistance, when they were transferred to safer quarters.

Had it not been for the prompt action of Governor Davidson, probably the prisoners would have effected an escape.

NOT DELMAS, NOW.

Whoever Handles Thaw's Case Next Time—Attempt to Hurry Trial Dropped.

New York, July 8.—Harry K. Thaw's lawyers have given up the idea of trying to force District Attorney Jerome to put Thaw on trial in October. Lawyers Dan O'Reilly and A. Russell Peabody called on Acting District Attorney Smyth yesterday and announced that the application made to Justice McCall last week, which was to have been argued this morning, would be withdrawn. The idea was to get a court order directing that Thaw be tried in October. The lawyers said that they had made up their minds that Mr. Jerome would deal fairly with Thaw. Mr. Jerome has announced that Thaw would not be tried before October.

Thaw's lawyers said yesterday that as yet no chief counsel had been selected for him.

"One thing is certain," said Lawyer O'Reilly: "the lawyer who will have charge of the case will not be from California."

ROBBERS' ILL-LUCK.

Grumble Because They Held Up Freight Train on Lackawanna.

Paterson, N. J., July 8.—Information that six train robbers held up a freight train on the Lackawanna Railroad near Little Falls, N.J., last Tuesday night, cowed the train crew with revolvers, plundered the train and carted off their plunder in a wagon became public to-day, when detectives employed by the railroad company asked (the Paterson police to search for the robbers. The robbers stopped the train by exposing a red light.

They overpowered the train crew, and, breaking open the door of one of the cars, loaded some of its contents into a wagon. The men worked hastily, grumbling all the while at their ill-luck in stopping a freight train instead of one carrying passengers and express.

A STRANGE MURDER HIDDEN FOR TWO DAYS.

Body of an Italian Found in His Room Shot Through the Heart.

New York, July 8.—By the finding of the body of Clemente Crisco, a prosperous saloonkeeper, in his room on the fourth floor of the house at 90 Elizabeth street yesterday morning the police are confronted with a strange murder mystery. Giuseppe Cama, of 154 Mott street, admits that he found the body, but declares that he knows nothing of the manner of Crisco's death.

In the opinion of Dr. Moeller, of St. Vincent's Hospital, Crisco had been dead for days. One bullet had penetrated the left shoulder, and, taking a downward course, had gone through the heart. There was also a bullet wound in the back of the head.

Cama says that twenty days ago Crisco, who had saved his money, opened a saloon in Jamaica, and that his (Cama's) brother went out there to tend bar for Crisco. The dead man's wife, Cama said, was out of town for her health.

None of the many other tenants would admit that they had heard the sound of shots.

Close inspection of the flat showed that four bullets had lodged in the walls of the kitchen. In the bath room, wrapped in a heavy cotton shirt waist, was found a revolver with four cartridges, discharged and one unexploded. Crisco's body lay on the floor of a bedroom, with his feet toward the kitchen. The rooms bore evidence of a struggle. Coroner Shady expressed the opinion that Crisco had been dead for forty-eight hours at least. He examined Jesus Crisco, brother of the dead man, and his wife, Jesus said that he had last seen his brother on Friday morning.

Mrs. Minnie Isabella, who lives at 88 Elizabeth street, says that on Sunday morning, about 6 o'clock, she was in her kitchen, which is opposite the dead man's room at 90. The witness said she was at her window and across the area she saw Crisco go up to the looking glass, put on his collar and start to adjust his tie. She turned away while he was still at the mirror. The man was found with his tie half tied. The witness said she saw another man in the room with Crisco.

A THIRD TRIAL.

JURY DISAGREES AGAIN IN COLLINS CASE.

Were Sent Back Several Times Without Coming to an Agreement—Question of Capital Punishment a Consideration.

Hope Cape, N. B., July 8.—Thomas F. Collins, charged with having murdered Mary Ann McAuley at New Ireland, Albert county, will be tried for the third time in September next. The jury retired at noon yesterday, and at supper time last night an agreement had not been reached. On orders from Chief Justice Tuck the jury was locked up for the night. This morning the jurors reported at different times that they were not able to reach an agreement, and Judge Tuck summoned them to the court room and discharged them. He remanded Collins to jail until September 17th, when the third trial will commence. When the jury was locked up last night five stood for conviction and seven for acquittal, and the same this morning.

It is freely stated that the question of the innocence or guilt of the prisoner was a question of much argument, but the question of capital punishment seems to have been paramount.

TO BAR CONSUMPTIVES.

Persons Are Thrown Out of San Antonio Hospital.

Fort Worth, Texas, July 8.—Following the action of health officers in several Texas cities in debarring tuberculosis patients from the city hospitals comes the announcement that State Health Officer Brumby will in a few days issue a proclamation effectually quarantining the entire State of Texas against consumptives in the advanced stages of the disease.

There are thousands of people who come to Texas annually in the various stages of consumption in the hope of receiving benefit, and tuberculosis sanitariums have been established in various portions of the State.

The election of consumptives from city hospitals in San Antonio and other Texas cities has caused much indignation. At San Antonio, it is said, patients were ejected who were almost in a dying condition, and these assert that there is nothing to be done but to wander in the streets until death comes to their relief. Some of the men ordered to leave the San Antonio hospital are unable to walk, and for that reason have been permitted to remain.

DROPPED DEAD IN TOLEDO.

Thos. S. Barnes, of Toronto, Succumbed to Heart Disease.

Toledo, O., July 8.—While seated at his dinner to-day, Thomas S. Barnes, who came here from Toronto, dropped dead at the Chicago Restaurant. Death was due to heart disease. Barnes was about sixty years of age and came here from Toronto about two months ago. He was a blacksmith by trade.

A letter turned over to the coroner shows that on June 30th Barnes received $20 from his sister in Toronto, and a request to come back home. The body is held here by Undertaker Matthias.

COLOR LINE IN BRITAIN.

A Young Mulatto Barred From Army and Navy.

London, July 8.—The British Admiralty and War Office have both drawn the color line against a youth born in London of a negro father and English mother. On the death of his parents the St. Bede and Guardian societies took charge of the boy, who has now grown up and desires to serve his country, but the authorities refuse to permit him to enlist in either the army or the navy.

This banning of a British subject because of his color promises to lead to a lively discussion in Parliament, where the matter soon will be brought up.

NEW EXPERIMENTAL FARM.

Will Probably Be Situated Near McDougall's Chute.

Toronto, July 8.—Somewhere just north of McDougall's Chute, beyond the north end of steel in the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway, is the local industry said to have been chosen for the Government's experimental farm for Northern Ontario. Hon. Messrs. Cochrane and Monteth looked over the country last week for the purpose of choosing a site, and this is said to be their choice.

BRUTAL DEED.

LILY LYNN UNCONSCIOUS AND AT DEATH'S DOOR.

Man Hunt for Albert Greenhill Results in His Capture—Has Been Taken to Richmond, Que.—The Mother's Story.

Montreal, July 8.—Word reached here this afternoon that Albert Greenhill, the assailant of Miss Lily Lynn, was captured at St. Mary's, Ely, at noon to-day and brought to Richmond, Que. He is charged with having murderously assaulted the fifteen-year-old daughter of John Lynn, a farmer in lower Melbourne, with whom he had worked for several months. Lily Lynn is still alive, though she is at death's door. Greenhill is an English charity boy sent out to the Knowlton Home.

Early yesterday morning, somewhere about 7, Miss Lynn went out to gather wild strawberries. She went about half a mile away from the house. Greenhill, who is about twenty-two years old, at his breakfast and then disappeared. About half an hour after she had gone her two little brothers went in the direction she had taken and heard a strange groaning noise.

They told their father, and he asked Jack, the oldest boy to run up and see. Jack says he saw a man lying in the edge of the woods, and when he approached the man got up, and he saw it was Albert Greenhill.

Mrs. Lynn told the story of the crime. "When Jack told me how they found Lily," she said, "I harnessed the horses to the wagon and we brought her down that way. Poor child, poor child. She was soaking in blood. We found four big wounds on her head. Her limbs were bruised. Her face was scratched, and on her chin was a deep bleeding wound, where the vile brute had bitten her. Close to where we found her was a rock, weighing from ten to eleven pounds covered with blood and hair. That was no doubt the instrument with which he had tried to batter out the poor child's life."

The Lynn family was up to this time apparently a very happy one. Mr. Lynn was for years in the employ of the Slater Shoe Company in Montreal before he purchased the farm at Melbourne.

EXCITING MAN HUNT.

Joel Winn is Surrounded by a Cordon in Mountains.

Grand View, Man., July 8.—A posse in pursuit of Joel Winn, who shot Joe Story, near Menarry, have him surrounded in a gap in the mountains after an exciting man hunt. There are twenty-eight men in the cordon, but Winn is armed with a Winchester rifle and a revolver, and as he is a most desperate character, the specials are taking no chances in storming the bluff.

He is frequently alerted, and the Attorney-General's Department has been asked to wire instructions to take him dead or alive. His capture is only a question of time, but bloodshed might be possible.

TORNADO IN WISCONSIN.

Four Killed and Several Injured in Storm-Swept District.

Lacrosse, Wis., July 8.—Reports from the district east of Lacrosse, which was swept by a tornado last night, show at least four persons to have been killed and several others seriously injured, and the damage much greater than at first reported.

The dead are: Mr. and Mrs. John Dame, of Oakdale; Mrs. William Butterfield, of the same place, fatally injured, and several others were less seriously hurt. Oakdale with a population of 500 was almost swept away.

At Warren Mills buildings were torn down and a number of people hurt. At Torres a woman and a child were killed, and several others were injured, and many buildings were destroyed.

MOTHER DROPPED DEAD.

As the Casket With Son's Body is Carried in.

St. John, N. B., despatch: Todd Russell arrived home from Boston this afternoon with the body of his brother Willie, who died in the city hospital with appendicitis. When the casket containing the body was taken into the house at Scott road this evening the young man's mother, Mrs. Converse Russell, dropped dead. The deceased was her youngest and favorite son.
