The Band Concert.
 THE ACADIAN predicted a rich musical treat to those who attended the concert at the Opera House last Friday evening by the band of the Royal Canadian regiment, and a treat in deed it proved to be. Owing to being unable to make railway connection the afternoon performance had to be omitted, but in the evening the seating capacity of the Opera House was fully taxed. The band was assisted by Miss E. M. Courtney, cornet, and Captain E. L. DuDomaine, violinist, both of whom proved to be artists of a high order. An exceedingly attractive program was presented and included selections from opera and a popular nature. The descriptive pieces, and in fact the whole program, were extremely effective. The renditions of Miss Courtney and Captain DuDomaine lent additional charm to one of the very best musical events that Wolfville people have ever had the privilege of enjoying. Mr. Black deserves the hearty thanks of the public for his efforts to introduce first class entertainment. The Royal Canadian band will be given a warm welcome should they ever again favor our town with a visit.

Surprise Party.
 A very pleasant gathering took place in St. John's rectory last Wednesday evening, in the shape of an old fashion 'surprise party.' The secret had been perfectly kept and when over forty parishioners arrived at the rectory, each individual one of them bearing a present, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon had the surprise of their lives. A very large number of most valuable presents were brought, heaping up a large clothes basket. The Women's Auxiliary also made Mrs. Dixon a personal presentation. A very enjoyable evening was spent with music and social intercourse. Towards the close the pastor gave a short address of thanks. He spoke of the many substantial evidences of the congregation's appreciation and good will received during the years he has been among them and of the spirit of harmony that had always prevailed in the parish. The gathering broke up with the singing of the national anthem. Miss Gertrude Borden gave a number of selections on the piano in her usual finished and brilliant style.

A Good Work.
 Recent visitors to our beautiful town were Mr. and Mrs. John Bradford, of Amherst, who were on a walking tour through the valley. They arrived here over a week and such morning Mr. Bradford addressed the college students at the chapel. He also spoke to the Baptist congregation last Sunday morning, and in the Methodist church in the evening. He gave an outline of the work he is carrying on in Amherst, where he is prosecuting a phase of V. M. C. A. work, but is doing it on a town-wide scale, securing for this the co-operation of the home, the school and the church. In the year he has been at work gratifying results have been attained, particularly in the decrease of crime among the boys and young men and in initiating a large number of them in different sorts of helpful work.

MARRIED.
 CHERRIE-SHERAR.—At St. John's church, Wolfville, N. S., by Rev. R. F. Dixon, Rector of Horton, on Tuesday, Oct. 22nd, Cyril Sherar, Chesbire to Alisa Marion Shearer, only daughter of Mr. George Shearer, of Grand Pré, N. S.

Wedding Bells.
 A quiet wedding was solemnized last Tuesday morning in St. John's church in this town by Rev. R. F. Dixon, Rector of Horton, when Mr. Cyril B. Chesbire, son of the late Rev. John Chesbire, Rector of Hindlip, Worcester, England, was united in marriage to Miss Alisa M. Shearer, only daughter of Mr. George Shearer, the well known orchardist, of Grand Pré. The bride, who wore a brown tulle gown, was given away by her father. The invited guests were the uncle and cousin of the bride, Mr. J. R. Macdonald of Charlottetown, P. E. I., and his daughter, Miss Macdonald, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harvey, of Grand Pré. The newly married couple left by the morning express for Montreal, whence they will sail for England. They will spend the winter in travelling in Great Britain and Ireland and on the continent, and will probably return to Nova Scotia next spring. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a diamond pendant. The hearty good wishes of the bride's numerous friends, in which THE ACADIAN joins, will follow her into her new life. She will be greatly missed in the neighborhood, where she was widely and deservedly popular.

The Boy Scouts.
 The boys enjoyed a rare treat on Saturday evening of last week, when Mr. Bradford of Amherst told them stories for an hour. All seated themselves on the floor of the club room and followed him with intense interest.
 The program for the week is as follows:—Friday evening,—"Fox" patrol at the club room at 7 p.m. All other scouts at headquarters at the same hour. "Wolves" and "Cuckoos" rehearse at the club room afterwards. Saturday,—"Others" at club room at 3 p.m. "Wolves" at Opera House at 4 p.m.
