A DESERVED TRIBUTE

In commenting upon the New Brunswick elections the Toronto Globe pays a deserved tribute to F. B. Carvell, M. P., recalling his courage and ability as chief counsel for Mr. Dugal before the Royal Commission whose report, in the end broke the back of the corrupt political ring which so grossly misgoverned New Brunswick.

The Globe says:

"The Liberal victory in New Brunswick is a personal triumph for F. B. Carvell, M. P., who has trailed political rascality in his native province with a doggedness and courage that entitled him to public gratitude. Early in 1914 he laid charges in the House of Commons which involved politicians in close touch with the New Brunswick government. It was proved that the Southampton Railway had received from Ottawa a double subsidy, to which it had no right, through misrepresentation of the cost of construction. The Royal Commissioner who conducted the inquiry reported that Mr. Carvell had been fully justified in bringing the case before Parliament."

"Mr. Carvell followed his clues to the end with the skill and pertinacity which have made him feared and hated by the whole grafting tribe. He was largely responsible for the Dugal charges proffered in the New Brunswick Legislature in the same years, which have culminated in the downfall of the administration. As the principal legal representative of Mr. Dugal, he uncovered a highly-organized system of corruption. Its apologists and beneficiaries were so enraged that they challenged him to resign his seat, and nominated against him the former Premier, Mr. Fleming, who had been smirched by a Royal Commission. The abuse with which he was pelted during the New Brunswick inquiry, and later when he prosecuted the Kite charges and exposed the Allison conspiracy, could not deflect him a hair-breadth from the performance of his duty. For his great service to the cause of public morality he has coveted no higher reward than the rout of the enemies of good government who shamed his province for years."

Today the government press howls against Mr. Carvell, fearing the exposures that are bound to follow the defeat of an administration under which so many evils flourished. The outcry does not come from men who "have nothing to fear or to conceal." No one whose course has been straight has any cause for anxiety. Those who had licenses to loot and who were still busy when defeat came upon them are today face to face with exposure and disgrace. And their party newspapers make daily confession that it is so by keeping up a sort of editorial ghost-dancing and beating the party tom-tom. But that will merely make bad matters worse. The wine is poured and it must be drunk.

Operation for Appendicitis

Mrs. J. A. Ballantyne, Surgeon Falls, Ont., writes:—"My husband was treated for appendicitis and the doctors ordered an operation. But he would not consent to an operation and began to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Since then he has had no need of an operation or even a doctor as the trouble has completely left him. I cannot find words to speak our gratitude for his cure."

FRANK B. CARVELL

Only last September the reptile press of this province pictured Mr. Carvell as a dead one politically, but before they are many weeks older they are likely to make the discovery that he is about the liveliest thing in the way of a corpse to be found above ground. Mr. Carvell acted as counsel for Mr. Dugal and had a hand in the preparation of the graft charges which eventually drove J. K. Fleming from Government and Legislature. When the members of the government showed a disposition to balk against the proposal to grant an enquiry, Mr. Carvell went right to a higher authority, placed evidence before him, and demanded as a citizen of this province that an investigation be held. Mr. Carvell won out; the Government appointed a royal commission, not because they courted an investigation but because they had no alternative in the matter. The revelations of graft and political rascality made by the royal commission put the government on its beam ends, and before it could get itself properly righted again the electors rose in their might and, like a great wave, completely swamped it. Mr. Carvell worked hard to bring about the very satisfactory result of Saturday last, and he worked in complete harmony with Messrs. Carter and Veniot, the energetic Opposition organizers. No public man in this province ever rendered such valiant service to the cause of good government as F. B. Carvell and he deserves all the good things said about him.—Fredericton Mail.

Titus of Andover

In the recent election we missed the familiar strut and bellow of the Hon. T. J. Carter of Andover, The Telegraph says. A former member of the Legislature, and one much given to vain words, this gentleman did not care in the last contest to test his political fortunes to the test of popularity, but now that the fighting is over he addresses to the St. John Standard such a letter as only he would write and but only a newspaper like the Standard would print.

It is easy to understand that the great victory of the opposition ticket in Victoria county would plunge Titus of Andover into the depths of grief and anger, and it is quite characteristic that he should make known his state of mind by proclaiming his devotion to the Empire and charging his opponents with sedition, theft, highway robbery, and murder. All of which merely serves to show how deeply the iron has entered the soul of Titus. Whenever he brays lustily it is a sure sign that things are going well for his political opponents.

Home Minus A Leg

Private Louis Dugal, son of L. A. Dugal, M. L. A., of Edmundston, a member of the 26th Battalion, arrived in the city this morning en route to his home on his way back from the front. He was met at the station by Charles Robinson, secretary of the Returned Soldiers' Association and by members of the soldiers reception committee.

Private Dugal is minus his right leg, having lost it as a result of a wound received while fighting on the Somme front. With all this those who had the pleasure of meeting him describe him as being one of the jolliest young soldiers that have as yet passed through the city.—St. John Times.

Florenceville Women's Institute

The Florenceville Women's Institute held their play "The Old Maid's Convention" on Tuesday Feb. 27. There was a large crowd. Home-made candy was for sale at a pretty booth and the nice sum of $108 was realized. The proceeds of this entertainment, less about six or seven dollars expenses, are to be sent direct to the Canadian Red Cross Society. The merchants of Bristol and Florenceville East and West were asked to donate materials for making candy, and the under-mentioned gave most willingly and generously: A. W. Phillips and M. W. Caldwell of Bristol, and A. A. Grant, S. W. Smith, A. B. Lovely of East Florenceville, Joe Pinsky and Gray & Co. of Florenceville.

The Women's Institute wishes to thank the following ladies, who, although not members of the Institute, so kindly helped with the entertainment: Mrs. R. S. Semple, Misses Stella Hunter, Crystal Davis, Amy Tompkins, and Willa Semple. They also wish to thank F. T. Atkinson who so ably took the part of Professor Pinkerton and A. D. Jonah and Bob Gray who attended to the selling and taking of the tickets at the door.

On Tuesday, March 13, the Women's Institute will hold a public meeting in the Assembly Hall of the Consolidated School, Florenceville. Dr. Barry Hagerman will give a lecture on "Dentistry" and a short musical program will be given. Meeting will open at eight o'clock. Admission free. A silver collection will be taken in aid of the patriotic work of the Institute. Members of the Institute are requested to come at seven, or not later than 7.15, so that a short business meeting may be held before eight o'clock.

At the February meeting of the Institute the roll call was answered by a presentation of bandages or old linen, and a good large roll of the same was taken in, and handed over to Mrs. W. L. McCain, president of the local Red Cross Society, and also vice president of the Institute.

Mrs. Thomas Belyea

On Sunday morning Mrs. Rachel Belyea, wife of Thomas Belyea of Lower Windsor died after four week's illness following pneumonia. She was 82 years and 5 months of age. Her husband and eight sons and daughters survive.—J. H. Belyea of Hartland and Amos of Mainstream; Mrs. Lizzie Colwell of Boston, Mrs. Ida Davis, of Queenstown, Queens county, Mrs. Helen Adair in Pennsylvania, Mrs. Wint Shaw, and Mrs. A. J. Orser of Mainstream and Mrs. Harry Belyea of Lower Windsor. The deceased was a daughter of James Belyea and was born at Rockland and was the last of a family of 12 children.

The funeral was held at the home on Monday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. J. D. Wetmore.

FELT LIKE A NEW PERSON

After Taking Only One Box Of "Fruit-a-lives"

EAST SHIP HARBOR, N. S.
"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-lives'. For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-lives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I felt like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches."

given in Smith's hall and an oyster stew was free to all. The large number present testified to the popularity of either the Liberal party or the oyster stew.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society held their monthly supper at Mrs. Claude McCain's on Thursday.

Miss Alward spent the weekend in Bath.

Mrs. Leck has returned from Woodstock where she has been visiting her sister.

We are glad to see that Miss Ella Colwell has quite recovered from her recent illness and is able to be out again.

Mrs. Ed. Stephenson is again at the hospital here for treatment.

10 CENT "CASCARETS" IF BILIOUS OR CONSTIPATE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

William Pirie left Monday for a month's trip to Vancouver and other western cities.

Flattering to the Original

But Imitations Only Disappoint

There are many imitations of this great treatment for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and whooping cough. They usually have some sale on the merits of the original, but it should be remembered that they are like it in name only.
