"Everybody knows the ... every one desirous to possess ... will tend to give the greatest possible ... this pet of the garden and conservatory. ... is not as well known, perhaps, as it might be, that to have roses in full perfection of size and color, proper planting and exposure are absolute essentials. The rose requires abundance of air and light, and to look their very best I think that judicious grouping is indispensable. I know no way of accomplishing this more effectually than by pyramidal grouping, that is, forming a rose pyramid, rising gradually in heighth from the minutest dwarf at the base, to the tallest standard at the apex. As the varieties are almost endless, it would be impossible to enumerate them. Almost every florist's catalogue will supply the list, and the taste of the operator direct the arrangement. A proper discrimination should of course be manifested in regard to the time and continuance of blooming, so as to secure the finest possible effect. I once read of a very simple method of producing a stronger and more agreeable odor to the rose. It is done by planting one or two large onions close to the root. It is said that water distilled from roses grown under such circumstances is decidedly superior to that prepared from ordinary rose-leaves. It is a French idea, and as it will cost little to try it, perhaps some persons may feel disposed to experiment on it."

☞ Dr. Baner, the Health Officer in Williamsburgh, L.I., has just succeeded in affecting a cure in a case of fully developed hydrophobia. One Burch, a shipwright, residing in Flushing Avenue, was bitten by a dog, and in 48 hours afterwards alarming symptoms gradually developed themselves. The police had to be called in to hold down the poor man. Doctors were summoned, and the Health Officer was called in, who, on Monday morning, the 13th ult., took entire charge of the case, and actuated by the theory that the poison had expended its virulence upon the spinal cord, directed his attention to it.—Without administering a grain of medicine, Le ordered a thorough (wet) cupping to the posterior part of the spine, following it up with ice applications to the same extent. The patient, of course, had to be on his stomach, and was well secured by mechanical constraint, during this treatment, which was continued unabated, without interruption, for three successive days and nights. The patient was protected against any return of the paroxysm. His pulse and breathing became quiet, the pains gradually left him, and isolated muscular twitchings were likewise extinct. Since Saturday last no outward symptoms has disturbed the steady progress of recovery, and on Wednesday last the patient was discharged from medical treatment, apparently in the best state of health.—*N. TO ADVERTISERS!

Business men throughout the United Counties of Huron and Bruce, and elsewhere, will find it to their interest to insert the

HURON SIGNAL,

ADVERTISING MEDIUM!

It is circulated in the centre of the Province,

Circulation of More than Double that of any other paper in the Counties!

MERCHANTS and others who desire to reach the farming community, people with their families, retail or wholesale, will find either our list of bona fide subscribers, or our paper of wetted paper for circulation, as we have not the slightest doubt they will be satisfied with regard to what we claim. The Signal Printing Office issued the first 500 lbs paper of the kind (fifteen years ago) that has been manufactured for circulation, and has never been guilty of one of the greatest nuisances of the day.

We do not make these remarks on account of any lacking off in our Advertising Patronage; on the contrary, we have had so many from every quarter as we could possibly find room for, and we make it a point never to allow an advertisement to remain in the paper beyond the time bargained for. Several columns of quack notices have been turned away during the past six months, as we are not willing, in accordance with the decision of the Press association, not to allow them space if we can obtain the price we received from local merchants. Notwithstanding this, however, during the year contained, we have averaged two columns of new advertisements per week. This fact proves a superior circulation, as it is well known by all advertisers that a paper that charges for notices, and is thus patronized, must be the best known medium, which, of course is always that having the greatest number of readers. The fact, for instance, has the largest circulation in the Province, and, therefore, has the largest share of advertising, the Leader follows next, and so on.

Besides our old friends in the County of Huron, who have come to regard the Signal as a household friend, we have a nice number of subscribers in Bruce, our business papers going to each of the principal townships as Brant, Carrick, Culross, &c.

If, then, you have lands to sell, houses to let, goods to sell cheap, or any public announcement to make,
