British Born Reply to Borden's Effort to Stampede Them by Pointing to His Nationalists Connections-Liberals Will Capture Large Number of Seats Held by Conservatives in "Ontario-Nationalists Seats in Quebec are Swinging to Laurier-Ontario Farming and Labor Interests Solid For Reciprocity

Toronto, Sept. 11-Ontario farming and labor interests are lined up in practically unbroken ranks for reciprocity and the Liberals are in receipt of encouraging reports from | many hitherto Conservative strongholds. The efforts to stampede the British born with the annexation bogev was met in Stratford by the challenge of the Englishmen to Borden to explain the alliance with Bourassa.

Conservative financing of the Nationalist campaign has been exposed and the proposal of the Ontario anti-reciprocity interests to organize a French-Canadian meeting at Sudbury to be addressed by Bourassa has effectually killed their protestations of loyalty,

In the Maritime provinces Van Horne stated that he was "in the hands of the campaign managers" and concerning reciprocity. "I am out to do all I can to bust the dammed thing"

The character of the campaign waged by the monied men and the interests everywhere is stirring the people to look to their own welfare and Liberals grow more assured daily of a sweeping victory. There is no doubt now in the east that the government majority will be in-

In Ontario the Liberals expect to win for a certainty Algoma, Nipplssing, North Lanark, North Simcoe, North Essex, Norfolk, Huron, South Bruce, Lennox and Addington and a dozen other Conservative seats are regarded as probable wins. There are not more than five Liberal seats even in danger.

Quebec has swung towards Liberalism with Laurier forcing the fight. The Liberals are no longer on the defence but expect to capture at least four seats held by the Nationalists in the late parliament. They are Soulanges, Champlain, Drummond and Arthabaska and Quebec

Premier at Victoriaville Victoriaville, Que., Sept. 11-Sir you it is as much pleasure to shake commence, his final appeal to the French Canadians before the contest. Two facts lent peculiar piquancy to the Premier's visit here. Here was the centre of the famous Drummend ONE MILLION TO Arthabasca by-election in which the Nationalists first showed their strength by the election of Gilbert over the administration candidate and it was in this district that Sir Wilfrid Laurier passed the greater part of his early days. The Premier evidently took both these facts in consideration, for though he dealt briefly with reciprocity, his speech consisted in, for the most part, a per sonal appeal and an attack on Henri Bourassa and his Nationalistic do? trine.
