SAN FRANCISCO.

San Francisco is a metropolis which was planned to the Pacific ocean by Spain a number of years ago and has stayed at home ever since. When Spain got through with San Francisco she turned it over to the Southern Pacific railroad, which wrote its ordinances and elected some very common council members until the recent insurrection. San Francisco imports large quantities of the heathen Chinese, and exports nineteen different brands of antiseptic climate, which are dropped off fast freights all the way from the Golden Gate to the New England Conservatory of Music. There is so much loose climate lying around San Francisco that tourists are never charged anything for it, and not a few of them carry samples of it home in their clothes and bronchial passages. The favourite costume in San Francisco in January is a pair of duck pants and a palm leaf fan, but in August the inhabitants call on each other in fur-lined overcoats and the form-fitting ealarp. It never gets sultry enough in San Francisco after 6:00 p.m. to cause anybody to kick off the covers. The city is entirely surrounded by atmosphere manufactured on the premises, and by several tonnage propositions, prominent among which is Goat Island, so-called from the flourishing crop of eastern money orders planted on the island to await the judgment day. Prior to the discovery of gold in 1848 San Francisco was hard up and lived mostly off the reluctant investor and the native catfish, but she is now congested with currency and hotels which charge $10 for a round trip to the dining room. There is a large harbor at San Francisco, where ocean vessels head in and take on tourists who are anxious to get away as quickly as possible and hunt up a climate where the weather doesn't break out in so many different spots.

How to Grow Hair.

It has been proved that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.

This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure Dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perturbed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair-dressing. McMurdo & Co., your druggist, is the first to import this preparation into St. John's and a large generous bottle, can be procured for 70c.

Strange Request.

A man who was very much under the influence walked into Mr. Peter Casey's meat market last night, and taking off his coat and hat and baring one of his arms asked Mrs. Casey who was serving some customers: to cut off the member, later asking her to remove his head. His strange request was politely refused and then the man tried to grasp a knife which, however, Mrs. Casey put beyond his reach. Men who were passing took the unfortunate to his home.

The Tritonia at Botwood.

The S. S. Tritonia, Capt. Henry Dawe, reached her pier at Botwood yesterday afternoon, after being 41 days out from London with a general cargo and a considerable amount of coal for the A. N. D. Co. The ship has been nearly a month trying to force up through the ice in Exploits Bay and River, and large quantities of dynamite were used to blow up the ice which was several feet thick, to enable her to proceed. She will load paper and pulp for London after discharging, and may not leave until the ice in the river breaks up.

Asleep on a Window.

Last night Const. O'Keefe found a 13 year old boy asleep on a window sill of the Court House. The lad was in a pitiable condition, and as he was subject to fits and ill might befall him, the officer brought him to the police station. He told the police he usually sleeps out around the streets rather than go home where his cruel father is, who drinks all his earnings.

Uncle Walt

THE POET PHILOSOPHER.

The rural postman, day by day, goes on his long and toilsome way, and takes the farmers' mail; he jogs across the hills and moors and much of hardship he endures for small supply of kale. I've seen THE RURAL him driving through the rain, but never knew him to complain or read the riot act; he pushed his tired old nag along and greeted with a cheerful song the cold wet cataract. I've seen him when the blizzard blew, I've seen him when the snow-storm snow, but never heard him roar; serene he drives along the trail and leaves the farmer's green goods maul in tin box by the door. I've seen him when the roads were rough, and when the raw winds were enough to make a mummy cuss; he jolted o'er the ruts and stones that dislocated all his bones, and never raised a fuss. His wages made a paltry heap, and half of it must go to keep his wagon in repair, to manure his trusty bay and keep its stomach full of hay, but he does not despair. I've seen no rural postman yet who made it his life work to fret and whine about his lot; when duty calls him to the road, without complaint he takes his load, a Johnny on the spot.
