Another Tragic Death.

PATRICK MURPHY, SUPERINTENDENT ENGINEER, KILLED AT FLOATING DOCK.

Yesterday, shortly after noon, another of those awful accidents which horrify those who learn of them, occurred at the floating dock, the victim being Mr. Patrick Murphy, Superintendent Engineer of the dock. Mr. Murphy, who resided on Alexander Street, has had charge of the dock for the past two or three years, and yesterday when the schr. Annie E. Larder was being taken on the stocks, looked after the work as usual. He had only returned from dinner when the vessel was taken in, and while looking after matters wore his overcoat, which fact was the direct cause of his death. It is assumed. Though no person present saw what actually occurred, it is believed the unfortunate young man stooped to look into the dock well, when his coat became caught in one of the cog wheels of the machinery, which was running at full speed to pump out the dock, and in a few seconds he was drawn in amongst the machinery and terribly mangled. Death was almost instantaneous. R. Blundon was Mr. Murphy's assistant, and when he found himself caught he yelled to Blundon to shut off steam and stop the machinery. Though his command was instantly obeyed, it was too late to save the poor fellow, whose body, frightfully lacerated, was taken by Messrs. Blundon, Wills and Noseworthy from amongst the machinery. The services of a doctor and priest were had, but when they arrived the vital spark had flown. Sgt. Mackey and other policemen were quickly on the scene and after a while the body was conveyed to the home which he had left a short time before, in the best of health and spirits. Mrs. Murphy was apprised of the awful occurrence by Rev. Father Pippy, of the Deaneery whose consolatory words tended in a great measure to lighten the terrible blow. Mr. Murphy was the youngest son of the late Thomas Murphy, Inspector of Bridges, and was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was a member of the T.A. and B. Society for many years and being the possessor of a splendid voice, was a vocalist of no mean ability, and this gift with his kindly qualities, rendered him a favorite socially. Deceased leaves a widow and four children, to whom the Telegram extends its sincere sympathy.

If a Laxative is Needed--"Cascarets"

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills are violent--they act on bowels as pepper acts in nostrils.

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets--or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gasses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

Curliana.

This Trophy evening among the curlers promises to be a very enjoyable one. The musical programme is an excellent one and of high order. Hon. President Reid will present the winners with the prizes. The season just ended has been most successful from every point of view, and although great rivalry existed in the games still good fellowship was never forgotten and that is the game of curling. It has been said that a true, keen curler will live ten years longer than an ordinary citizen, because his worries and troubles are all forgotten for two hours at least every night he plays the game. May the game continue to become more popular. This season many visitors and spectators visited the rink and we are informed caught on to the game so much that their visits were frequent to witness the many beautiful shots that can be made by experts in the game and to witness the excitement while it lasted.

Religious Reception

At Belvedere Convent.

"What a spectacle!" And where can we find one which more visibly manifests the divine nature of the Church? In an age of effeminacy and universal decadence, these victorious souls have found again and preserved the secret of strength and in the weakness of their sex they manifest the vigorous and persevering energy which we lack to face and conquer the selfishness, the sloth, the sensuality of our time, and of all times. They go to offer to God in their first freshness their whole hearts, and all the treasures of that deep love, of that absolute renunciation of self which they refuse to man. They are about to bury, to consume it all in the secret of voluntary renunciation. They have kept their hearts for Him, Who is unchangeable and never deceives. Is this a dream? A page of romance? Is it merely the story of a past forever dead? No—it is what is daily happening and witnessed among us.

These beautiful words of the gifted Montalembert recurred to the mind of the writer whilst assisting yesterday (25th March) at the solemn and impressive ceremony of Religious Reception at St. Michael's Convent, Belvedere.

His Grace the Archbishop officiated, assisted by Very Rev. W. Brick, C. S. S. R., and Rev. Dr. Greene, Master of Ceremonies. There were also present Revs. J. J. McDermott (St. Patrick's), Dr. Kitchen (St. Joseph's), Frs. O'Callaghan, Pippy and Kelly.

The elaborate ceremonial prescribed by the Church for such solemn occasions was carried out in detail.

The Postulants—Miss Hickey, of Flacencia, and Miss Christopher, of St. John's, were conducted by the Rev. Mother Superior to the Altar steps, where kneeling they were interrogated by the Archbishop. They replied in clear and cheerful tones, that renouncing the world with its pomps and pleasures they sought admission into the Noviciate of the Order of Mercy.

His Grace then addressed them in glowing words of congratulation and encouragement reminding them of the inestimable privilege they had so recently enjoyed, viz. that of having their preparatory Retreat preached by the Very Rev. W. Brick, C.S.S.R. Owing to this, His Grace remarked that he would not address them at any length, knowing what beautiful instructions on the Religious Life they had received from this enlightened and experienced Director of souls.

At the conclusion of the Archbishop's discourse the Postulants retired to change their worldly dress and soon re-appeared clothed in the humble garb of the Sister of Mercy. They also renounced their secular names and will be known in future as Sister M. Francis de Sales (Miss Hickey) and Sister M. Angela Joseph (Miss Christopher).

Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament brought the ceremony to a close.

The Archbishop, Clergy and immediate relatives of the young Sisters just received were entertained at luncheon by the Rev. Mother and Community.

We extend hearty congratulations to the young Religious, who yesterday entered on their new life. Their vocation is a noble and sublime one—to consecrate their young hearts to God, to devote their talents and energies to the education of youth, to minister as Angels of Mercy to the sick, poor and suffering, and we trust that many fruitful years of usefulness are before them in their noble and exalted work.—Com.

Highlanders' Ball.

One of the best social events, witnessed for some time past, was the ball held by the officers of the Newfoundland Highlanders, last night. The ball-room was artistically decorated and brilliantly illuminated and the whole presented a pretty scene. The attendance was exceptionally large and amongst those who participated in the dance were Major Davenport, A.D.C. to the Governor, officers of sister brigades and officers of H.M.S. Calypso. The C.C.C. band supplied the music excellently and the programme was:

- Extra Waltz—The Glide.
- Lancers—Balmoral.
- Waltz—Waltz of Rivarly.
- Two-Step—I love a Lassie.
- Waltz—The Druid's Prayer.
- Waltz—Lancers—The Glide.
- Two-Step—Electric King.
- Waltz—From "The Soul Kiss."
- Waltz—Langgus—Cadets.
- Two-Step—Policy King.
- Waltz—Venus on Earth.
- Two-Step—Mosquito's Parade.
- Waltz—The Pink Lady.
- Two-Step—Mumblin' Mose.
- Lancers—Our Own.
- Waltz—Autumn Song.
- Waltz—Lancers—The Glide.
- Two-Step—The Aviator.
- Waltz—Kiss of Spring.

At midnight there was an interval of an hour, when supper was served, after which dancing was resumed. The function was a brilliant one, thoroughly enjoyed by all present, and terminated at 3 this morning.
