MOLLOY-LUNDRIGAN.
On Wednesday, November 26th, a very happy marriage took place at St. Shott's, Trepassy, between Miss Josephine Molloy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Molloy, of St. Shott's, and Mr. Tobias Lundrigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lundrigan, Peter's River. The matrimonial ceremony was administered in a very solemn manner by Rev. Father Renouf, P.P., of Trepassy, at the residence of the bride's father, at 8 p.m. The bride was handsomely attired in a suit of azure blue with veil and wreath, and was assisted by her three cousins, Miss Mary Finlay, Miss Catherine Finlay and Miss Annie Molloy. The bridegroom was supported by Mr. Wm. Molloy, brother of the bride, Mr. Francis Lundrigan, cousin of the groom and Mr. Thos. Finlay. After the ceremony a very pleasant entertainment took place between an assembly of upwards of seventy, and dancing being kept up till near noon the following day—every one enjoyed themselves vigorously. Mr. and Mrs. Lundrigan left for their home at Peter's River on Saturday, November 29th, accompanied by a great many friends and relatives. For their future we extend heartiest wishes.—Com. Trepassy, Nov. 27th, 1913.

McMurdo's Store News.

FRIDAY, Dec. 5th, 1913.
If you feel that you need a simple tonic—and many people feel so at the beginning of winter—something that will not in any way interfere with the daily round of duties, and that will yet gradually but surely build up the system from the inside, you need not go any further than our Quinine and Iron Tonic. This medicine has now been before the public for the past three or four seasons and with the increasing confidence of its members. McMurdo's Quinine and Iron Tonic contains nothing in the least degree likely to cause inconvenience to even the most delicate stomach, and is in all cases followed by improvement in the appetite, and bracing of the nerves. Price 40c. a bottle.
"Field Violets Talcum for mine" is an expression we often hear. We fully agree with the sentiment, for this talcum powder is unequalled by any talcum we have—except perhaps its twin, Lazell's Massita. Price 25 cents a tin.

Criticism Ungenerous.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—In a communication published in your paper this evening, your correspondent in criticising the play entitled "Miss Elizabeth's Prisoner," was, I think, somewhat ungenerous. In the first place he might have regard to the fact that the performance was given by amateurs for a charitable purpose. With this in mind would it not have been better taste to have waited till after the second performance, before making adverse criticism respecting the costumes. He should have remembered that we have no theatrical costumier at our doors, and amateur actors labor under great difficulties in providing suitable costumes. Their costumes must be lent by friends or procured at the cost of the performer, and when the proceeds are for charity, the aim is to keep down expenses. The whole tone of your correspondent's criticism was patronizing.

in the extreme and calculated to embarrass the performers and make them feel more conscious of any little defect which were beyond their power to remedy. It is not playing the game to thus criticise an amateur performance given to aid two such excellent institutions as St. Bonaventure's and Field-Spencer Colleges.
Yours truly,
FAIR PLAY.

MOZART died 1791, aged 35. The great Austrian composer who performed in various capitals of Europe when only eight years of age. He wrote many beautiful Masses and a Requiem of unsurpassed beauty.
DUMAS died 1870, aged 68. Famous French novelist and dramatist, who published more volumes than any man of his time, the greater part of them of high merit. In the field of historical romance he showed wonderful power and resource.
"Now I must go, just as I should be able to live in peace; now leave my art when no longer the slave of fashion, nor the tool of speculators. I could follow the dictates of my own feeling, and write whatever my heart prompts. Did I not tell you that I was writing this (the Requiem) for myself?"
—Mozart, just before his death.

The Sensible Solution of that Christmas Problem—

"Give him a Gillette Safety Razor"

Why sensible?
Because the Gillette is a real gift for a real man—a gift that is sure to be appreciated.

It doesn't merely look fine, though the Gillette is certainly hard to beat in that particular. It appeals to a man's hard-headed business sense as well as to his good taste, for it gives him, every day in the year, a service whose equal he could not get from any other source.

The gift of a Gillette is a compliment to any man, for a decade of use has proven it undoubtedly the best razor that money can buy.

From Standard Sets, Pocket Editions or Travellers' Sets, in gold, silver or gunmetal finish, cased in leather or polished plate, you can select a Gillette exactly suited to any man's tastes or habits. Standard Set (shown at right in lower panel) costs $5.00. Pocket Editions (centre, below) cost from $5.00 to $6.00. Combination or Travellers' Sets (right above and left below) run from $6.50 up.

Your Druggist, Jeweler or Hardware Dealer should be able to show you a good assortment. If not, write us and we will see that you are supplied.
