HEAD WAITER: Yessir, we are a bit old fashioned, as you say—but we find people like it so long as we make them comfortable. I haven't heard no complaints on that score.
GUEST: Good beds and good food, eh?
HEAD WAITER: Excellent beds and good wholesome food—comfortable Gas Fires and 'ot water in every room in the 'ouse.
GUEST:—Gas Fires, eh! That doesn't sound old fashioned.
HEAD WAITER: No, sir, it don't. But we 'ad to move with the times, sir, and it's our business to give people what they want. If you'll excuse me, sir, that 'ave been 'ere all my life, I find that our people mostly want 'ot baths, 'ot water, well cooked food, good fires, good beds and no fussing. We couldn't do that with coal—not satisfactory as I may say. So we puts in gas—everywhere. We cooks by gas, we lights by gas, we 'eats the water by gas and we 'as Gas Fires. So you can 'ave a 'ot bath in ten minutes if you want it, sir, a fire in your bedroom and whatever you like to order for dinner, sir, punctual to the minute.
GUEST: That sounds top-hole—but where's the old-fashioned part come in?
HEAD WAITER: It don't come in, sir, so far as that's concerned. But there's the 'ouse, the furniture, the pictures and—if I may say so—the 'omeliness of the place.
GUEST: (a trifle bored) Well, well I'll have that hot bath right away—if you'll get the bathroom ready.
HEAD WAITER: The bathroom is ready, sir, always. There's plenty of 'ot water, you'll find clean 'ot towels in the 'ot cupboard in the bathroom and the Gas Fire lighted in your room.
GUEST: Right O!—and dinner at 8 sharp, please!
HEAD WAITER:—What'll you 'ave, sir—a nice sole, leg of mutton and sweets?
GUEST: Well, if that isn't troubling the cook too much—I'm rather late, I'm afraid.
HEAD WAITER: No trouble at all, sir. You see, sir, our kind of comfort means comfort for us as well as our people. We don't 'ave no coals to carry, no fires to make up, no bathrooms to attend to—This 'ere gas, if I may say so, saves money and time, and—
GUEST: You may say so at dinner time, please, I'm off to have that bath. . . (ascends stairs slowly) . . . Decent old boy, though he does talk a lot; and a real nice place. Thank heaven, I've struck a decent billet at last! (The bathroom door bangs sharply.)
