Interference in Elections.

The Hon. Mr. Dorion on Tuesday brought under the notice of the House of Commons some revelations of a most scandalous character, in which it was proved that the Hon. Mr. Langevin, one of the members of the Government, had directly interfered in the election for the County of Charlevoix, last summer. The facts as stated in documents and letters duly certified and signed, are as follows:—Mr. Cimon, who first announced his intention to run for the County of Chicoutimi, afterwards changed his mind, and became a candidate for Charlevoix. Mr. Tremblay, an opponent of the Government, ran against him, and being the more popular of the two he defeated the Government nominee, and is now sitting member for Charlevoix. The Hon. Mr. Langevin, being anxious to help Mr. Cimon in every way, and hopeful of securing his election, sent a letter to Mr. Cimon during the contest, which was publicly read at the church door of Baie St. Paul one Sanday, after service, which in effect stated that if the electors of Charle-Interference in Elections. a letter to Mr. Cimon during the contest, which was publicly read at the church door of Baie St. Paul one Sinday, after service, which in effect stated that if the electors of Charlevoix returned Mr. Tremblay, the Government would not cause any public works to be made in the county, meaning by this that they would not construct a wharf and lighthouse at the entrance to the bay. Mr. Cimon and Mr. Tremblay were both present at the time, besides other gentlemen of well-known reputation, who, though they had not the letter in their hands, saw the writing disjunctly, and also Mr. Langevin's signature attached. It was also proved that a letter was sent to Chicoutimi, and also publicly read there at the church door, stating that if any Opposition candidate was elected for that county, the Government would not construct the wharf in that place. After reading all the documents and letters bearing on the two cases, Mr. Dorion referred to the gravity of the charge. It was a clear case of direct interference on the part of a member of the Government in an election, in which he sought by bribery to influence the votes of the electors in favour of a supporter of the Government. Mr. Tremblay, the hember referred to, substantiated all that Mr. Dorion had said, and emphatically declared that Mr. Langevin in answer to this serious charge produced a letter from a Mr. Price, denying the statement that Mr. Langevin in answer to this serious charge produced a letter from a Mr. Price, denying the statement that Mr. Langevin in answer to this serious charge produced a letter from a Mr. Price, denying the statement that Mr. Langevin in answer to this serious charge produced a letter from a Mr. Price, denying the statement the church door in Chicoutimi, contained any threat in regard to the Government. Mr. Tremblay, however reiterated his previous a service, the Government of t regard to the Charlevoix case, Mr. Langevin said he was not aware that any charge in connection with the election in that county would be brought up, and asked for time to enable him to disprove it, which was guanted. But even though he should meet it with a denial similar to that given in the other case, we have still he deliberate statements of a cloud of witnesses on the other side, who are ready to swent that what they have written is true. These reveals toos show what desperate straits the toyenment were put to in order to elect their supporters, and we doubt not there are plenty of other cases where bribery and intimidation were tised by members of the Government, in behalf of their friends, which have not yet, and possibly may never come to light. Mr. Donien deserves the thanks of the people for showing up Mr. Langeyin in his true colors, and we hope he will not rest satisfied till this disgraceful case is thoroughly examined into and made public.

Election Peritions:—The petition against Mr. Ross, Prince Edward, was thrown out in consequence of defects in the affirmation made by a Quaker and attached to the recognizance. The petitions against the returns for South Leeds, East Northeleast, and North Peritin yall be sent to Committees for trid. The East Toronto Committee held its first weating on Tuesday, at which East Toronto Committee held its first meeting on Tuesday, at which Mr. Hodgins, Qr.C., appeared for the petitioners, and Mr. Beary, the sitting member, in person.—After the petition was read, Mr. Beary, not involude to the petition of the latest and increment; also an extension of the time for filling lists of objections, which was "granted. Notice for a Coramission was then given on the Late of the petitioners, to be 11% in posed of on Friday.

Boys and men, all over the room, have heard it so often that they could anticipate his words and teal just "what was coming next." Beart what was coming next. "Beart what was coming next." Beart words of the greatest blessings of peace would be that we should up longer be obliged to hear the song "When this cruel war is over? and it will certainly not be the least of the cause of relief at the closing of the present campaign that we shall no longer have dimed into one cars the story of "Nantucket."

Sending Coals to Newcastle.—One of

SENDING COALS TO NEWCASTLE .- One of the most remarkable indications of the W. C. Alexander, Pres.; H. B. Myde, Vice do growing scarcity, and dearness of coal in Guat Britain is the announcement that the steamship Great Eastern, after laying the new Atlantic cable, is to take a cage from Cow Bay, C. B., to Europe, on her return trip, to consist of fifteen thousand take of coal, and one of the principal shippers in Cape Breton has contracted to load the monster steamer in fifteen days. Who ever thought that the magnificent Greet Eastern, would have the merit of illustrating that the matter of "conving coals to Newcastle," like Lord Timothy Dexter's venture in sending werning pans to the West Indies, where they brought high prices as molasses dippers, is not a visionary or idle one, for in the present state of the coal market in England there is no doubt noney in the speculation. the new Atlantic cable, is to take a cago
