ATTACKED BY WHALES.

A Good Summer Story From Jackson-

The New York Herald has a special from Jacksonville, Fla., which says:

With great dents in the plates on each side, and with some of the delicate machinery in the engine room disarranged, the steamer Seminole, of York yesterday. The damage to the vessel was the result of an encounter with monster whales. Soon after passing Sandy Hook, J. E. Morton, the purser, says the vessel ran into a school of whales. Soon six of the monsters appeared almost under the
