quired for general purposes and 7 mills for schools. The estimated receipts for the year were $10,717 07, and the ex-of Health, $40; relief, $50; salaries, $640;

olicitors, $300; public schools, $2,500 separate schools, $200; printing, $175; depenture coupons, etc., $2,333 05; county rate, $500; rebate of taxes, $50; misellaneous, $225; sinking fund, $1,061.

Councilor Duff said he had ascer tained that the village could be run on land tax as assets. If it were not that the village were going into the city he would advocate a rate of 22 mills, but as it was he thought it best to inaugurate the 25 mills at once. This would

Interesting Services-Remarks of Rev. W. M. Kay and Other Ministers.

The induction of Rev. Walter Moffatt in the Presbyterian ministry took place last evening, Mr. Moffatt assuming the pastorate of Chalmers Church. The school room, which had been prettily decorated, was crowded, and the services were of a very interesting nature. Rev. Messrs. Robert Johnston, W. J. Clark, J. G. Stuart, M. P. The people who had begun to believe Christ's doctrine were oudest in their ridicule, saying, "He hat was a God with such power would n nowise allow himself to be cruci fied." The speaker also spoke of the two prisoners who were crucified with Christ, one taunting him to save them, and the other asking to be remembered in heaven. The efforts of Mr. Moffatt became so successful that it was decided to apply to the Presbytery for a pastor. This was done, and was the result of the present solemn occasion.

After the induction ceremonies were concluded, Mr. Moffatt was heartily welcomed by the Presbytery.
