MANY GIRLS WITH NO PLACE TO GO FORM URGENT PROBLEM

Have No Place to Entertain Their Friends in Many Watson & Way Cities and Are Led to Spend Their Time On Streets and in Picture Theatres.

The need for better housing accommodation for working girls in Canadian cities was presented in a most urgent manner last night by Miss Charles, Dominion organizer of the Girls' Friendly Society, in addressing the ladies of St. George's Anglican Church. The difficulties of obtaining room and board at reasonable prices are very great in many cities, Miss Charles stated, Girls have no place in which to entertain their friends, and are forced to promenade the streets or seek shelter in moving picture theatres. This lack of home privileges leads to the downfall of many. It is a grave situation in Canada, and one which church members and members of all moral reform societies will have to face.
