The firemen were called yesterday afternoon to the plant of Wortman & work on York street, where a spark from a passing locomotive had set fire to the roof of one of the buildings. The blaze was extinguished without serious damage.

A Correction.
In a heading in The Advertiser yesterday it was stated that the United Garment Workers, in the case of Rickert vs. H. A. Britton & Co., of this city, had lost the decision. This was a mistake. The Britton people lost their application to compel the plaintiff to put up security for the costs of the action.

HYMAN HALL WILL BE A BOWER OF BEAUTY

London Horticultural Society Will Make a Fine Showing.

The officers of the London Horticultural Society are very enthusiastic over the prospects for a fine flower show in Hyman Hall on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Entries continue to pour in and some exceptionally fine exhibits are looked for. The frequent rains during the past few weeks have had a good effect upon many varieties and as a consequence the show should be particularly pleasing to flower lovers on this occasion. It is understood that several horticulturists have developed novelties that should attract some attention at the exhibition.

PRIZE WINNERS WERE GIVEN THEIR REWARDS

Closing Exercises Held in the Catholic Commercial Institute, Monday Night.

The closing exercises of the Catholic Commercial Institute, held last night in the parish hall on Richmond street, attracted a very appreciative audience. Senator Coffey presided, and Mr. Aylward and a number of the students were present.

The programme was designed to show the work being done by the students, and the verdict was that the institute is setting a very high standard. Mr. Aylward, Senator Coffey and Schools Inspector Sullivan congratulated the students upon the excellent showing. A feature of the work was the tramping in, including little Master Insell, who described himself as "a budding Cicero," especially distinguishing themselves.

Josephine McCarthy, a child with a remarkably sweet voice, sang a selection, "Home Sweet Home," which made an instantaneous hit. The selections from Tom Moore were also excellent.

Interesting Debate.
A debate on the subject, "Resolved, that literature has done more for the uplifting of mankind than invention," proved very interesting. The arguments were thorough and showed much painstaking preparation, and in the end, Senator Coffey, while admitting that both sides had put up a gallant battle, declared in favor of the affirmative, and literature won.

The presentation of the prizes formed a pleasing feature of the programme. Five dollar prizes, donated by Mr. T. Aust, for penmanship, went to Marjorie Daly, while Harold Palmer, Alma Johnston and Mae Jenkins also shared in prizes given by Mr. Aust.

Another prize of $5 in gold, given by Mr. E. J. Carthy, for the best essay on "Canada Since Confederation," was won by Jento Tierney. It was regrettable that owing to a prolonged illness the winner could not be present, and his prize was handed to J. Insell, a classmate, who will see that it is placed in his hands.

A MARTYR TO HAY FEVER

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured After 15 Years' Suffering

Cornwall Centre, Ontario, Nov. 27, 1911.

"I was a martyr to Hay Fever for probably fifteen years, and I suffered terribly at times. I consulted many physicians and took their treatment, and I tried every remedy I heard of being good for Hay Fever, but nothing helped me.

"Then I heard of 'Fruit-a-tives,' and decided to try them, and I am thankful to say that this remedy cured me completely.

"To every sufferer from Hay Fever I wish to say, 'Try Fruit-a-tives.' This medicine cured me when every other treatment failed, and I believe it is a perfect cure for this dreadful disease—Hay Fever."

MRS. HENRY KEMP.

The real cause of Hay Fever is poisoned blood, due to the faulty action of the bowels, kidneys and skin.

"Fruit-a-tives" cleans the blood by regulating bowels, kidneys and skin—and thus relieves the excessive strain on the nervous system. Try "Fruit-a-tives."

Fifty cents a box, six for $2.50, trial size 25 cents. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives, Limited, Ottawa.

HORSES ARE SELLING AT RECORD PRICES

Animal Fair at Durham Was the Most Successful Ever Held.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Durham, June 25.—Mayor Black states that the horse fair held here recently was the most successful ever held in this province in the month of June. Fifty-three horses changed hands, and prices ranged as high as $535 for a team. Buyers were here from all over Ontario, some from as far west as Port William, and the competition was keen. Lower class horses were also in
