EXTRADITION CASE FROM QUEB

The Appeal Case of Green Gaynor Argued Before Pri Council.

London, Dec. 17.—The privy cowince yesterday began hearing the peal of the United States against a casion of the justice of the crow Quebec in the case of Green and Gradjourned at the conclusion of the ments today. Judgment will be dered December 19th.

Donald MacMaster, K. C., of treal, concluded his argument in of the United States today and wallowed by Herbert H. Asquith, fineme secretary, representing the typondents. Mr. Asquith contended was mo ground for the interventive privy council. The most their ships could do was to express a stract opinion on the merits of the Mr. Asquith complained of the fowhich the American government presented the case. This form so to him highly improper. He proved read a paragraph in the Amprinted case, commencing "Wheth judge in the discharge of his duty ending "Nor indeed of they the necessary to do so."

The lord chancellor, Lord Haleoncurred, saying: "I must deprece introduction of such matters introduction of the private of the steamer Campania, which sails New York today by way of Queenshoping to be home by Christmas said to the Associated Press that he confident the decision of the ority cill would be in his favor. What he had not expect Green Gavnor to surrender for extradition soil she paragraph referred to haspath was irrelevant, but by exception to it the respondants exized the point made by "a Amgrowermment."
