Five Special Trains Leave Teronie for the Great Northwest. Yesterday was the biggest day of the season in the Northwest colonization boom. No less than five special trains started from the Brock-street station last night bound for Winnipg. These trains contained 75 cars in which were stored the effects of 250 colonists. This is Ontario's contribution to the North-west for one week. Last week there were about 150 colonists started up. As seen at the Brock street Station last
