REFUSING RICHES.

Chances For Making Fortunes Have Often Been Turned Aside.

It is not an easy thing to say "No" to wealth when it is offered in hand, but there are people who have done it. In the eighties the best known and most popular actress in the world, perhaps, was Mary Anderson, an American who was as good as she was beautiful.

At twenty-eight she married and has never since been tempted out of her retirement except for a charity performance. In the hope of inducing her to go on the stage again an enterprising American manager offered her $50,000 for a season of thirty weeks—fortune in itself. The lady refused.

Calve was offered $4,000 a week to go on the vaudeville stage. Her work was to consist of singing four songs—two at a matinee and two in the evening—which works out at about $150 a song. She also refused.

Jack Binns, who in the early days of wireless won worldwide fame by sticking to his post on a sinking liner and bringing help from the four quarters, was offered fabulous sums to appear on the music hall stage and show "how it was done." His reply was that he was an electrician and not an actor. So he "turned down" a fortune.

Mr. Gladstone refused several fortunes from enterprising publishers. He would only write what he wanted and when he wanted. Browning was the same.—London Answers.

SHAKESPEARE AND SLANG.

Later Day Phrases That Were Used by the Immortal Bard.

"Good night," a terse ejaculation that has taken ranking position among the slang of the day, had its source in no less authority than Will Shakespeare. It took a Hamilton college student to discover that the magic words were frequently used in Shakespeare's plays and with as much variety of meaning as we have been giving to them.

"The idea that 'good night' has the mark of modernity," declares this student, "is a sad mistake. In act 1, scene 3, of the first part of 'King Henry IV,' Worcester says he will disclose a matter of Hotspur which is as full of peril as to overwalk a current roaring lion on the unsteadfast footing of a spear." To which Hotspur replies, "If he fall in, good night."

Many other bits of modern vernacular are from Shakespeare, the student says, among them "Go to it!" "You cheese!" "I am for you," "Dead drunk" and plenty of others.

And regarding that once favorite phrase "Beat it" the student says this: "Every one from a former president to a newsboy has made use of these two words. Yet in act 2, scene 1, of 'The Comedy of Errors' Luciana exclaims: 'Fie! Beat it hence!'"

The Indignant Mandrill.

The blue faced mandrill which, or who, has ended an unhappy life in his solitary cage at the zoo was a victim to the human sense of humor. He had a long, broad, light blue nose with a pink stripe down the middle. The nose always caused a laugh. And when, in acute irritation, he turned his back upon the inevitable guffaw the bright blue thighs, edged with rose color, raised a new shout of delight. He knew perfectly well that the laugh was the laugh of derision, the third and lowest of the forms of human fun. He visibly hated his visitors. Nature had so colored him to enchant the eyes of a mate, but men have other eyes than hers. Swift in his days of failure and despair might have looked with the look of the indignant mandrill.—London Chronicle.

Blending the Odors.

It has been proved that two odors which do not seem to have anything in common, that of putrefied cheese and that of pineapple, are so closely allied from the chemical standpoint that it takes but a few minutes to transform an intense stench into a sweet fragrance. This curious experiment is easily made and requires but a small amount of three chemicals—valerianic acid, sulphuric acid and amylic alcohol. Care must be taken not to spill over the fingers or dress any drop of the first two named liquids. Sulphuric acid is exceedingly caustic, and the stench of valerianic acid, besides being unendurable, is very difficult to get rid of.—London Family Herald.

None of the Shop For Her. Butcher—"Ow is my daughter gettin' on with 'er music, professor?" Professor—"Well, I'm only teaching her the scales at present."

Butcher (indignantly)—"Teachin' 'er the scales! I don't want 'er to know nothink about the scales. She ain't goin' to serve in the shop. I mean 'er to be a lady. Teach 'er the planner or I'll take 'er away from yer.—London Mail.

RELEASING ALIENS.

Interned Foreigners Are Being Allowed to Go Back to Work.

Large numbers of Canada's interned aliens are now being released. Already a great many of them have been allowed to return to ordinary life and more of them are being released all the time.

Between 1,300 and 2,000 Germans and Austrians have been allowed to leave Spirit Lake, Que., and Kapuskasing, Ont., the large camp along the N.T.R. line. There are now less than a hundred aliens in each of these camps.

The reason for the release of the men is the great improvement in employment conditions in Canada. In the early days of the war when work was scarce, large numbers of these aliens roamed the streets with nothing to do and thus promised to constitute a menace. It was this class chiefly which was sent to the internment camps, the more dangerous aliens being confined at Fort Henry, Amherst, Halifax and Vernon. Now that work is plentiful and labor scarce, those at the camps are being let go and are being eagerly received by industries which have been experiencing a labor shortage.

Complaints as to the treatment of aliens in Kapuskasing, Spirit Lake and other such camps, have been received by the Canadian Government. The Government was able to assure the United States consul, through whom the representations were made, that they were unfounded. Since the outbreak at Kapuskasing some time ago those interned there have not done work of any kind. There was a disturbance at Spirit Lake about the same time, news of which did not become disseminated, but it was summarily quelled before it reached any proportion. A result of the work done by the aliens at both camps in clearing ground of the villages in embryo have grown up there and it is probable that those still at Spirit Lake and Kapuskasing will remain after their release and make their homes there.

Revenue Going Up.

The consolidated revenue of Canada for the three months of the fiscal year ending June 30 was $50,772,903.92, and the expenditure was $37,055,238. The revenue from all sources amounted to $56,000,000. Of this expenditure only $10,528,045 comes under consolidated fund account while $26,527,249 is under capital and $22,173,031 of this is war outlay. In the month of June last the war expenditure was $12,439,187.93. During the three months' period the expenditure on both capital and revenue accounts outside of the capital outlay on war has decreased substantially, due to the policy of rigid economy adhered to by the spending departments of the Government.

The June revenue increased from $11,433,970 to $17,600,149, the increase being found in nearly all branches including $4,000,000 in customs.

The buoyancy of the Dominion's financial situation is shown throughout the statement. The total assets of the Dominion on June 30 were $420,395,783, as against $267,943,943 a year ago. The net debt increased from $450,287,721 to $583,910,637, but the increase for the month was $16,013,946.95, or nearly $2,000,000 less than a year ago.

The credit Canada has extended to the British Government now totals $150,000,000. Munition orders to this amount have been placed in Canada by the Imperial Government.

Canadian deposits on savings account total over $700,000,000 having increased a little over $100,000,000 during the 20 months of the war.
