The Toronto Telegram, which has always given an independent support to the present Ontario Government; calls upon that Government to clear its skirts of the disgrace in West Eigin. The Telegram says.

"The blackest chapter in the political history of Canada is written in the name of West Eigin.

The crimes disclosed in South Ontario and West Huron are mere indiscretions compared to the appalling guilt of this organized assault upon the right to an honest vote and a fair count.

The trial judges in the West Huron case have again postponed their decision owing to the non-appearance of Linklater who is hiding in Detroit. The judges declared that if the man were not forthcoming in a week they would further postpone the case until after the vacations.

WT R Preston, the chief Liberal organizer, managed the campaign in West Elgin last January. During its progress he took part in a Sabbath School Convention. On the evening of January 12th when his men had canted Macnish in, he telegraphed from Toronto to the member: "Hug is machine for me."
