HERE'S A REAL WAY TO MAKE MONEY

Last year crops were short. Some farmers found this part didn't get enough to feed their cattle.

You can't make money out of dairy or beef cattle when you have to feed them expensive and comparatively inefficient grain, hay or roots.

With a Hilo Sylo on your place you would always be sure of sweet, green ensilage—the lowest-priced feed—feed that makes steers put on weight and keeps cows sleek and contented and increases milk flow.

I'd like to show you with pencil and paper that a Hilo Sylo will pay for itself in one season.
I'd like to tell you of farmers who say that their Hilo Sylo returns them its original cost every year!

I've also a block of wood to show you—imported Southern Long Leaf Yellow Pine—twice as heavy as spruce—stronger than oak—wood that makes the Hilo Sylo everlasting. Let me tell you, too, how the staves are tongue, grooved and bevelled about the self-draining end-joints about the anchorage—self-adjusting hoops pointed door lock and ladder—and all these other exclusive features that put the "Hilo Sylo" in a class by itself.

In short, let me show you a real way to make money.

Crusoe Knew What He Wanted And He Got It

ONE of the most persistent advertisers in the history of success was Robinson Crusoe. He knew what he wanted—a ship—so he put up an ad. for one.
He hung up a shirt on a pole, at the top of his island.
That, in the language of the sea, was plain to every seafaring man.

The circulation was small, there was no other medium, but Crusoe kept at it, despite the fact that he got no enquiries for a long time. He changed his copy, as one garment after another was trayed out, and in the end got what he wanted.

Crusoe used the best medium at his disposal. The best medium in Annapolis County, Mr. Advertiser, is the Weekly Monitor.
It goes direct to the people to whom you wish to tell your story.
Use these columns persistently and you are bound to obtain results.

COMMUNITY LOYALTY.

Have you ever stopped to consider the fact that loyalty to community interests is the highest form of patriotism? Show us the man who is loyal and true to every interest of his own community and we will show you in that same individual a man in whom his country can repose absolute confidence in any emergency that calls for his allegiance.

On the other hand the man who is careless and unconcerned for the interests of his community is most apt to display the same spirit of indifference towards his government or his country should any serious danger threaten either.

Try to imagine our own province of Nova Scotia composed of communities welded and cemented into a symmetrical whole, each one striving to excel the others, but each from its own locality developing a broader and deeper loyalty—a loyalty that reaches out and embraces the whole.

This would be brought about if we could be brought to see that we owe allegiance to our own people, but that the prosperity and success of others is in no wise way a detriment to us, but rather a help, that if each community would develop itself to the utmost—materially, mentally and morally—none would need do aught to detract from another's interest.

Let us develop community loyalty to the full—the highest possible form of patriotism—EX.

ONE THIRD OF C. E. F. VETERANS HAVE MIGRATED TO UNITED STATES, DECLARES SECRE- TARY GRANT MACNEIL.

Ottawa.—"Nearly one-third of the overseas strength of the Canadian expeditionary forces has migrated to the United States in search of its bread and butter," declared C. Grant Mac-Neill, Dominion secretary of the Great War Veterans' Association, "in discussing the immigration and emigration situation in Canada before members of Flanders Lodge, L. O. L., on the anniversary service of the formation of the lodge at St. Etienne, France, among the Canadian forces.

"The investigation of Canadian veteran emigration has led to an investigation of the whole great problem, and," said Mr. MacNeill, "we discover that for the last two decades the emigration to the United States has been far in excess of our total immigration from all quarters.

"Canada paid three and a half million dollars in 1923 for the privilege of giving the United States a quota equal to our total immigration, and 45,000 of our resident citizens in addition," he said, "and added that Canadian immigration facilities are being exploited by Europeans to evade the United States quota laws.

"Why should we continue to invite hungry Europeans to sit down with us around a lean board with the cupboard of supplies locked up tightly?" Mr. MacNeill asked, in declaring that if we "unlocked the cupboards of our natural resources" we would not have to look very far for new peoples desiring to share the new prosperity.

"The blame for the 'emigration debacle' could not fairly be placed on the immigration authorities or the government, but was due largely to the apathy of the Canadian people, he said.

To solve the immigration problem veterans were proposing the following preliminary steps:

A determination to colonize Canada first with Canadians and then with other stock. Honest co-operation between the immigration department and the employment service of Canada to prevent further displacement of the present population.

Extension of farm settlement and small holdings settlement among Canadians.

Acceptance of the empire settlement scheme under which the British government will advance 300 pounds to new settlers, provided the Canadian government advances a similar amount.

Assisting selected immigration from Nordic races in Europe for settlement and to clear and cultivate crown lands.

Emphasize settlement activities instead of immigration, until a proper balance is struck.

BE A BOOSTER.

Tell us not in mournful numbers that this town is on the bum; rouse up from your peaceful slumbers; get out and make things hum. If we go to work in earnest we can make things hit, on high; "dust thou art, to dust thou returnest," is a song of and by. All the past is gone forever —you can't call one moment back—and the future may come never, this is true, so help me Mack. Now's the time to do your boosting, do not wait tomorrow's dawn, in the grave you may be roosting, all your boosting chances gone. Lay aside your little hammer, grab a horn and toot a few; quench the kicker's dad-blamed hammer with a joyful blast or two. This old town is sure a pippin, and we ought to boost it big, when we hear some growler yippin, we should smite him on the wig. Mighty oaks that grow and flourish came from acorns plain and small; with your boosting you may nourish something that may prove a blessing to the tolling sons of men—that's the point that I am stressing—boost and boost, then boost again. People love the smiling booster, and for him they loudly cheer, but they hate the knocking rooster, long to pelt him in the ear.
Boost your country and your business boost the people in your town, they will dub you wise and witty and you'll gain a wide renown.

MAKE PRESENTATION TO DEPARTING PASTOR

Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Marshall Are Honored by Congregation.

The high esteem in which Dr. A.
N. Marshall, pastor of the First Baptist church, is held in the pastorate he has occupied for the last seven years and the respect and sincere admiration accorded Mrs. Marshall, was expressed last night at a largely attended reception in their honor, given previous to their departure for Wolfville, Nova Scotia.

During the years of their residence in Ottawa, Dr. and Mrs. Marshall have made many warm friends, many of them ministers and members of the other congregations. At the gathering last night messages of felicitation and goodspeed were voiced by Rev. A.
N. Frith, Rev. C. G. Hepburn, Rev.
Dr. W. T. G. Brown, Rev. Wesley Mcgaw, Rev. H. I. Horsey. As chairman Mr. R. A. Sproule told of the regret felt by the congregation at the loss of Dr. and Mrs. Marshall, who had endeared themselves in so many ways not only by the outstanding ability and fearless justice of the pastor but in the spirit of graciousness that had always been a part of Mrs. Marshall's charm, despite recurrent illness.

The appreciation of the congregation was expressed in tangible form by the presentation of a purse of gold to Dr. Marshall and a silver buffet set to his wife, the addresses being read by Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Cameron.
In reply, Dr. Marshall told of the happy years spent in the First Baptist church and the ties of friendship that would always bind him to his old pastorate. Mrs. Marshall who received the guests with her husband and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Morrell, carried a beautiful arm bouquet of American Beauty roses, the gift of the young ladies of the congregation.

The musical programme unusually enjoyable was directed by Miss Bertha Le V. Worden. The opening number was an instrumental quartette by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Parson, Miss B. Waterman and Miss Agnes Mulligan. Delightful vocal numbers were given by Miss Marjorie Henderson, soprano; Mr. Keith Garcock, tenor; and Miss A. Mulligan, contralto. Miss Worden was the accompanist.

Quantities of lovely flowers and plants were used in decoration. Refreshments were served by the ladies, the guests seated at small tables centered with flowers.

Worth Its Price

"We have cheaper teas, madam, but I think you'll find 'KING COLE' is worth its price." So said a wise grocer recently to a questioning customer. He was there not merely to serve her, but to serve her well.

He might please her purse with the cheaper article but her final judgment of his service would be on the quality of the tea supplied.
He wanted a satisfied customer.

This was one of the many merchants using 'KING COLE TEA' in their own homes, and so he could say with sincerity:
'It is worth the price.'

"ACCORDING TO DIRECTIONS"

Here's a letter, typical of one enthusiastic reception the new Rakwana Golden Orange Pekoe has received:

"I have tried your tea and find it excellent. We used it according to directions and it was much better than the tea we had been using."—W. J. Scott.

When a man's so enthusiastic about the quality of a tea that he sits down and writes the blender, that's convincing proof the tea is unique in quality.
