

Have just been interrupted by the appearance of twelve smart lads from our Police S. S. They say—"Please teach us the Review, we want to do well in that examination." The All India S. S. Examination on the S. S. Lessons of the last six months, which is conducted in India in more than twenty languages, takes place July 13th. So we are preparing the children of the day school and some of the evangelistic schools for that test. All are working with a zest. Those who pass receive printed certificates from the headquarters of the I. S. S. Union at Calcutta.

We enjoyed a tour in Calinga. Bro. Amenthal, pastor of Chicocole Church, and six of the helpers in S. S. work accompanied us and they worked untingly, walking long distances to the villages and giving earnest testimony. Day after day the little chapel was filled. Inquirers often came to the bungalow, which we had rented on account of its pleasant position overlooking the sea. We had hoped that some would come out fully on the Lord's side. Since our return we received a card to the following effect—"Three of us wish to join. We are believing in Christ in all things. We have great joy in our hearts and thank you all for teaching us the Way of Salvation. Come again soon, please."

Please pray for your representatives more earnestly than ever before. Pray that we who hold forth the Word of Life may in all things walk worthily of our high calling: pray that we may fulfil the command "Disciple the Nations" not only in proclaiming the Gospel but in lovingly persuading men to receive Christ as the Lord of the heart, and the Saviour of soul.

I would thank you each and all for your prayers and help. Please hold the ropes very strongly. The enemy is mighty. Iniquity reigns. Our greatest need is an endowment of power from on high.

May the God of peace Himself give you His own peace and may your work in church and home be abundantly blessed.

Very lovingly,

Your Co-Worker,
MABEL E. ARCHIBALD.

P.S.—Will all who send us Lesson Roll, cards, books or papers please tie and wrap strongly, and write the name of the sender in the upper left hand corner of the parcel.

"Crusade Day" was brought to a fitting close last evening, when the lecture room of the Baptist Church was packed with eager listeners, as Mrs. J. C. Archibald, in her own inimitable way, told the story of the "Good Samaritan Hospital," in Chicocole, a story showing marvelous Divine leadings, the narration of which has, we trust left such an impression that something tangible for the hospital may result therefrom. We are so glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Archibald with us, to grasp their hands and bid them God speed on their journey to India. They, with Mrs. Higgins and Miss Flora Clark, expect to sail from New York on Saturday, Oct. 26th. Amherst, Oct. 11th, 1901.
