The SURPRISE Way.

READ the directions on the wrapper.

1st. Commence by dipping one of the articles to be washed in a tub of luke-warm water. Draw it out and rub on the "SURPRISE" lightly, not missing any soiled pieces. Then roll in a tight roll, put back in the tub under the water and let it stay there half an hour. Do all the wash this way.

2d. After soaking for this time, rub lightly on the wash-board; the dirt will drop out.

3d. Then wash lightly through a luke-warm rinse water, which will take out the suds.

4th. Next rinse through a blue water. (Use scarcely any bluing. SURPRISE takes the place of bluing). Wring them; hang up to dry without boiling or scalding or any more rubbing.

The wash will come out sweet, clean, white.

Sparkles.

TIREd, languid people who lack energy and appetite should take Burdock Blood Bitters, the best tonic strengthener and purifier extant.

EVERY man can see wherein he was a fool a year ago.

MOST people treat their friends as if they had strings tied to them.

FEAR of his wife never saved any man, but love for her saves men every day.

DEAR SIR,—I take pleasure in testifying to the great healing qualities of your medicines. I had the misfortune to injure my leg, and through cold and neglect it broke out in a running sore, my leg became inflamed and very painful, and the discharge was very offensive; various remedies failed to help me when I had the good fortune to try your B.B.B. and Burdock Healing Ointment. Before I had finished the second bottle the discharge had stopped, and in two weeks more my leg was as well as ever. I feel justified in recommending it to the public as a cure if only given a fair trial.

GEO. LAURIE,
Portage la Prairie, Man.

It never pays to be too certain, but it is usually profitable to be just about certain enough.

THE men who sulk very rarely succeed. And there are so many things happening in the world to make a man sulk.

DEAR SIR,—I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for dyspepsia, and have found it to be the best medicine I ever used. I could not eat without suffering from a terrible burning pain in the pit of my stomach. I used six bottles of B. B. B. and am glad I did so or I should have been in my grave to-day, it completely cured me. I take a bottle every spring and would not be without it if it cost $10 a bottle.

DAVID PEDLEY, Morley, Alb.

THE real hero in these modern days is the man who can appear to be happy at a public gathering, where he isn't enjoying himself a bit.

If you want to succeed sit down and write out the rules your neighbour should observe to be successful, and then obey them yourself.

THERE are not many men who have enough sense to refuse an hour's good time for the sake of the two hours' punishment that will follow.

DEAR SIR,—I can highly recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. It cured my daughter of a cough she had been troubled with since childhood. She is now twelve years old. MRS. M. FAIRCHILD, Scotland, Ont.

THERE is nothing in this world so disgusting as gossip, particularly when two people are gossiping together in a railway car, and you are sitting half in and half out of earshot, so that you can catch only every other word.

EVERY old maid knows the right way to bring up her neighbour's children. So does every old bachelor—only he would bring them up with a round turn.

"HAVING used Burdock Blood Bitters for general debility, weakness and lack of appetite, I found it a safe cure." HENRY HOWARD, Brownsville, Ont.

SOME people will stand up and criticize the sublimest work of architecture, even when they know in their secret hearts that they haven't ability enough to drive a nail.

A GIRL is safe in refusing to marry the young man who is willing to sit in a comfortable parlour till 1 o'clock a.m., and leave his horse standing unblanketed at the gate.

DEAR SIR,—I think it is a privilege to recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for chapped hands, swellings, sore throat, etc. I recommend it to all.

MRS. GEO. WARD, Josephine, Ont.

EVERY man who was mean to his mother as a boy, will confess that it is a humiliating recollection he can never get rid of. It is a pity that every boy who reads this cannot take it to heart. Being a bad boy is disagreeable in several different ways; no boy can afford it, but the trouble is they do not find it out until they are men.
