MR. SANTLEY'S JUBILEE.

Mr. Santley will shortly celebrate his jubilee as a public singer. He made his debut at the concert of the Liverpool Glee Union in October, 1851. Three years later he was appointed principal bass at St. Anne's, Edge Hill, Liverpool. A few years later he joined the church, and now sings regularly at St. Joseph's Retreat, High-

FATHER AVELING'S APPOINT-MENT.

Cardinal Vaughan has appointed the Rev. Francis Aveling, of St. Francis' Church, Tottenham, rector of the Westminster Cathedral School of Choristers. The school will be limited to 20 boarders. In the selection of choristers a preserence will be given to the sons of converts in reduced circumstances who have suffered for the faith. Father Aveling will be remembered in Toronto, having been stationed at St. Michael's Palace for a short time.

C. M. B. A.

At the last meeing of Branch 49, C. M. B. A., Toronto, on the 6th inst., That the memfollows: unanimously resolved of this branch offer their sincere sympathy and condolence to our worthy Brother, M. J. Burns, on the death of his eldest son, Thomas Francis Burns, a young man greatly reagrded and esteemed, and they earnestly pray that Our Heavely Father, ders all things for the best, will alleviate the sorrowful and bleeding heart, of oor worthy Brother and his wife and family in their sore affliction and bereavement. And it was further resolved that such resolution be inscribed on the Branch minutes and copies thereof published in The Register and Irish Capadian.

A RELIGIOUS CEREMONY AT LOR ETTO ABBEY.

A very impressive ceremony took place at Loretto Abbey on August 6th, a fitting solemnity for the beautiful festival of the Transfiguration. The nature of the ccremony was twofold, plainly illustrated by the appearance of those taking part in it. Nine young ladies, attired in spotless white, presented their petition for the religious habits, while nine others, in the garb of novices, were to complete their immolation by pronouncing their vows. In the Sanctuary were His Grace Archbishop O'Connor, assisted in the ceremony by Rev. Dean Kilroy, D. D., of Stratford, Rev. Fa-

Rev. Fathers Rohleder, Treacy, Walsh, McIntee, McCann, O'Leary and Bench, of this city; Fr. Mc-Bench, Keon, of London, and Dr. Brophy, of Boston, were also present. Mass, celebrated by Rev. F. Cherrier, was preceded by the reception ceremony and the initiative steps towards profession; the pronouncing of the Vows, and final admittance into the order, were reserved for the solemn moments before Holy Communion, when in presence of the elevated Host, the binding words of self-immolation were uttered. The sermon delivered by His Grace Archbishop O'Connor on this occasion was on the religious life and its obligations. The feast of the day suggested so many happy similes that those to whom it was chiefly addressed must indeed have felt themselves transported to Thabor. The Choir lent their own sweet charms to the happy event, while the altar and sanctuary presented a lovely aspect, adorned profusely with natural flowers and colored lights. The English rendering of the Te Deum was a fitting close to such an interesting ceremony. They might well chant their thanksgivings, these chosen ones, from whom the "better part" shall not be taken away.

Those who were received as novices are the following:

Miss Martha McLaughlin, London -Sr. M. Zita; Miss Cecilia O'Connor, Sr. M. Zita; Miss Cecilia O'Connor, Buffalo — Sr. M. Vincent; Miss Alice O'Connor, St. Augustine — S. M. Catherine; Miss Helens. McArdle, Wolfe Island — Sr. M. St. Thomas; Miss Mary Drohan, Toronto — Sr. M. of the Cruss; Miss Rose O'Neill, Sault Ste. Marie — Sr. M. St. Stephen; Miss Margaret Brown Kinkors — Sr. Fl. Margaret Brown, Kinkora - Sr. Fidelis; Miss Elizabeth Belch, Rochester -Sr. Germaine; Miss Mary Roussain, Sault Ste Marie, Mich. - Sr. Lucy. Those was were admitted to Holy Profession are:

A largely attended meeting was held on Monday evening in the St. Vincent de Paul Hall, Shuter street, to take measures to recognize in some fitting form the services rendered to the I ish-Canadians of the Province by the late Mr Patrick Boyle Mr J. J. Foy, M. P. P., occupied the chair. The meeting showed a unanimous feeling in favor of taking some practical action, and many tributes were paid to Mr. Boyle's unflinching patriotism and unselfishness by the chairman and

The following resolution was adopted on the motion of Ald Burns: That this meeting of friends and admirers of the late Mr. Patrick Boyle take this opportunity of putting on record their deep sense of his worth and excellence and the great loss which his lamented death has brought to the community at la ge and esreceally to the Irish race in this Province. Resolved, further, that in view of Mr. Boyle's long, untiring, enthusiastic and unselfish work in the cause of his countryme a atting testimonial be raised to him and that it be in such form as a committee to be appointed by this meeting may decide upon." The following committee was then appointed to collect subscriptions and decide upon the shape which the memorial is to take: Messrs. J. J. Foy, M. P. P., Rev. J. Brenhan, C. S. B., Rev. He was eager for a playmate -He was hungry for a tov But 'twas always too much bother, Too much dirt and too much noise, For the House of Too Much Trouble

And sometimes the little tellov Left a book upon the floor, Or forgot and laughed too loudly,
Or he failed to close the door.
In a House of Too Much Trouble
Things must be precise and trime
In the House of Too Much Trouble
There was little recent for how

Wasn't meant for little boys

He must never scatter playthings, He must never romp or play; Ev'ry room must be in order And kept quiet all the day He had never had companious,
He had never owned a pet —
In the House of Too Much Trouble
It is trim and quiet yet.

There was little room for him.

Ev'ry room is set in order-Ity'ry book is in its place, And the lonely little fellow Wears a smile upon his face. In the House of Too Much Trouble IIe is silent and at rest—

THE NEW ARTIFICIAL EYE

Within the past year or two a notable improvement has been made in the shape of the artificial eye; the new form is hollow, more or less full, with a closed back. It has no sharp edges or corners, and in the best quality is beautifully imished and rounded. It is very comfortable to wear, has a natural movement, is more sanitary, and fills out the orbit better than the shell eyes.
