THE CANADIAN SCHOOL.

Glad are we, after months of anxious suspense, to announce the opening of the Canadian School, under auspices most promising for its future success.

On the 1st of September, the reign of the East Indian Company ended, those vast Provinces and millions of people being placed under the gentler rule of our beloved Queen. On that day, we fondly trust, was also brought to an end the shameful countenance given to idolaters by this over grown Company of Merchants, whose chief aim, instead of being the glory of God and the welfare of millions, was how to increase their enormous revenues and add to their boundless possessions. This memorable day was also characterized by an event which may make less noise in the World's History, but which we trust will yet prove a blessing to not a few of our fellow countrymen on the burning plains of India,—we refer to the commencement of the Canadian School.

Dear young Friends—give this School a place in your hearts. It is yet small, numbering only 20 Hindoo girls, and the question whether or not, it is to prosper and increase
