

Christmas Suggestions

The various articles on these gift pages have been selected with the idea of presenting only such things as are possible to be easily and inexpensively made and that have some real and useful value. Many of the articles can be made from scraps of ribbon, silk and lace, which all thrifty women store away in a scrap-bag for such emergencies. All these articles can be duplicated within from one to five dollars, and many possibly for considerably less.

For one's intimate woman friends the gift of personal adornment is not only in good form but also always acceptable. Girls will be delighted with these dainty hats to wear to the theater or to a dance.

WITH SILK FLOWERS AND LACE CORONET EFFECT OF WIRED LACE.

BEAD AND LACE TRIMMED BONNET.

OF LACE, BANDEAU OF EMBROIDERY

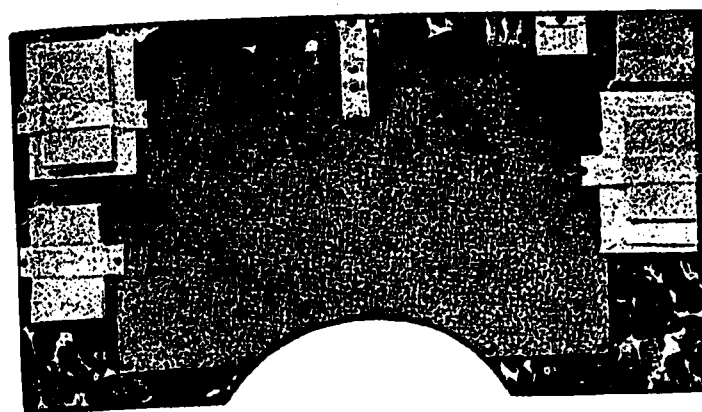

QUAINT BONNET OF BROCADE SILK

* * *

When a woman complains of loneliness, she wishes it understood she is still good.

* * *

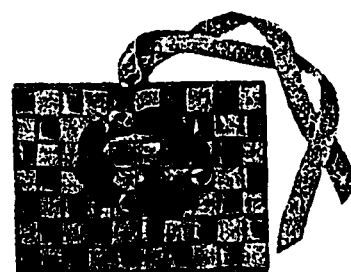

So long as truth is naked, people will continue to take liberties with her.

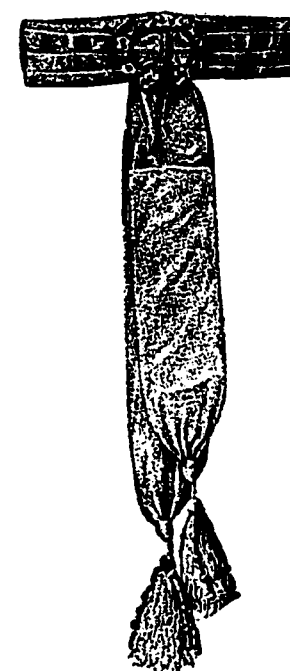

A SEWING LAPBOARD CONVERTED INTO A CONVENIENT WRITING DESK.

OPERA OR THEATRE BAG OF SILK UNIQUE RECEPTACLE FOR LINGERIE RIBBON

RIBBON HANDKERCHIEF CASE

RIBBON OR SILK GIRDLE

* * *

Stevenson's have recently installed a thoroughly first-class candy store in Victoria, where the Balmoral grill used to be and if you like the best of chocolates—well, you will thank us that we told you.

* * *

Painter: "Rogers, the critic, has roasted my picture unmercifully!"

Friend: "Don't mind that fellow! He's no ideas of his own; he only repeats, like a parrot, what others say!"

* * *

Mistress: "Why didn't you come when I rang, Mary?"

Maid: "I didn't hear the bell, mum."

Mistress: "Well, in the future when you don't hear the bell ring, you must come and tell me."