

THE INVITATION

The terms of the invitation are important to note. You will be in Canada under the Foreign Visitors Program as a private citizen and will not be involved in the protocol and ceremonial an official or state visit would include. You will be free to observe aspects of Canadian social, economic, political, cultural and educational institutions and practices. You will also be able to visit historic sites and scenic areas and to attend cultural events, if you so desire.

Your invitation will include one or more of the following benefits, wholly or in part:

1. Prepaid round-trip economy air transportation by the most direct route from your home to Ottawa, Canada. In some countries excursion tickets are issued and if you intend to visit other countries at your own expense you may wish
