other Contracting Party directly and, in its discretion, through its agents. Such airline shall have the right to sell such transportation, and any person shall be free to purchase such transportation in the currency of that territory or in freely convertible currencies of other countries.

2. Each Contracting Party grants to the airlines of the other Contracting Party the right of free transfer in conformity with the OECD's Code of Liberalization of Current Invisible Operations, signed by both Contracting Parties, of funds obtained by each in the normal course of its operations. Such transfers shall be effected on the basis of the foreign exchange market rates for current payments prevailing at the time of the transfer and shall not be subject to any charges except those normally collected by banks for such transactions.

ARTICLE XVI

(Taxation)

The Contracting Parties shall act in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Convention signed in Ottawa on March 28, 1959 between Canada and Finland for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with Respect to Taxes on Income or as amended or replaced with respect to the profits derived by any designated airline of a Contracting Party from the operation of aircraft in international traffic in accordance with the present Agreement.
