NOTES FOR THE CLOSING CANADIAN STATEMENT

BY THE HONOURABLE NORMAN CAFIK, MINISTER OF STATE FOR MULTICULTURALISM
AND SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE OF THE
SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EXTERNAL AFFAIRS,
TO THE MEETING OF THE CONFERENCE ON SECURITY AND COOPERATION IN EUROPE
IN BELGRADE, MARCH 9, 1978

When our meeting began its work here last October, our agenda contained two main items, which were logically linked to each other. The first was to hold a careful and objective review of the current state of implementation of the Final Act. The second was to consider new proposals designed not to re-write the Final Act, but to deepen our collective commitment to its purposes and to improve the quality of our performance. We successfully pursued the first objective by holding a wide-ranging, frank and honest review of implementation. Even if a real dialogue was never achieved between us, the course of our deliberations showed clearly how much still remained to be done. It is all the more unfortunate that we seemingly failed to realize the negative impact resulting from the shortcomings of incomplete implementation and the effect such gaps may have on future expectations and achievement. This is evident from the minimal document with which we conclude our meeting. It is a source of disappointment to my Government that this document does not reflect the vital substantive concerns of participating States, in that we could not agree to express the need for more positive and constructive efforts so as to make the Final Act a more vital and dynamic part of the relationships between us.

It is regrettable that we could not even agree on a factual account for the public record. Public opinion in our countries has a right to expect some commonly agreed assessment of how the Final Act has been implemented and how we propose to meet the commitments we have made in the period that lies ahead. Unfortunately they will not get this. Instead, the meeting has produced only a document reflecting lowest common denominators. We would have hoped that the two and a
