

and the proposed amendment shall be brought into force not earlier than sixty days from the day of the publication of the notice in the Canada Gazette unless within the period limited therefor by this subsection a request is received by the Commission to hold hearings, or a written submission is received by the Commission setting out views and recommendations, on the matter of the proposed amendment.

(3) Where a written submission seeking a change in a proposed amendment mentioned in subsection (2) is received by the Commission within the time limited therefor by that subsection and no request to hold hearings on the matter of the proposed amendment is received by the Commission within the time limited therefor by that subsection, the Commission shall allow a further period of thirty days for the circulation of the submission and the receipt of comments thereon and the Commission may thereafter

- (a) bring the proposed amendment into force as originally proposed or as altered after receipt of the written submission and replies thereto, on a day fixed by the Commission,
- or
- (b) hold hearings on the proposed amendment.

(4) Where a request to hold hearings on a proposed amendment mentioned in subsection (2) is received by the Commission within the time limited therefor by that subsection, or where hearings are held under subsection (3) on the proposed amendment, the Commission shall

- (a) circulate any written submissions received pursuant to subsection (2) that have not already been circulated pursuant to subsection (3), and
- (b) hold such hearings as in its opinion are necessary to enable all persons who wish to do so to present their views to the Commission;

and thereafter the Commission may bring the proposed amendment into force, as originally proposed or as altered after such hearings, on a day fixed by the Commission.

(5) Where an amendment to a regulation made under this section is proposed by a person other than the Commission that has merit in the opinion of the Commission, the Commission shall circulate the proposal and replies thereto and, if the Commission considers it desirable to do so, the Commission may

- (a) bring the proposed amendment into force on a day fixed by the Commission, which shall not be earlier than ninety days from the day that the proposed amendment was received by the Commission;
- or
- (b) hold hearings on the matter of the proposed amendment and bring the proposed amendment into force, as originally proposed or as altered after such hearings, on a day fixed by the Commission.
