

both are subjects of particular concern to the two main groups of citizens in our area.

The government members remind me of a flock of homing pigeons. Every day, one or two ministers board a plane to India, Africa, England, or the United States. They travel so much that they have no time to consult each other. That is why their statements are so often at odds, and they have to reverse themselves.

I might add that some great speakers, often heard in this house, including the hon. member for Joliette-L'Assomption-Montcalm—

An hon. Member: What are you reading?

Mr. Boulanger: Let me say to the hon. member who has just interjected that this paper I am holding is a blank sheet.

Some hon. Members: You don't say.

(Text):

Mr. Speaker: Order. It being 9.45 o'clock by two out of three clocks it is my duty, pursuant to section 6 of standing order 58 as provisionally amended, to interrupt these proceedings and put forthwith the question on the motion before the house.

The house divided on the motion (Mr. Fleming, Eglinton) which was agreed to on the following division:
