Mr. Cossitt: Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order and again draw the attention of the parliamentary secretary to questions on the order paper Nos. 2271 to 2280 inclusive requesting a list of lawyers used by the government for legal business. I have been seeking this information for about five months. I believe this is the fifth time I have risen on a point of order asking when the information will be forthcoming. On Monday last the parliamentary secretary made no response to my inquiry in this regard and I now wonder, in view of the fact that further days have passed, whether it is not too much to expect him now to advise the House when this information long ago requested will be given.

Mr. Reid: Mr. Speaker, I have had discussions with the officials of the Department of Justice. I have not yet been able to get a firm date when the material will be available.
