forth of all yet known, and will receive in various states and in the future.

The Government with great interest and attention has followed the progress of this movement since its inception in 1903. It has seen the growth of the movement from a local organization to a national one, and it has seen the development of a program of education, training, and social service for the colored people of this country.

Therefore, when we are asked to endorse the program of the M.P.O. we do so with confidence and joy.

It is our hope that this endorsement will be a step toward the realization of a better future for all of our people.
