

of the utter incapacity for various reasons of our public men to rise from party politics to Statecraftship - Of course as regards the present Administration I, with many others, have long since ceased to think that it enjoys the confidence of the people. In fact I am sure that it does not -

I see that the discredited politician Sam Hughes, has made another dastardly attack upon you - It is characteristic of the man that he should make it under the bomb-proof shelter of Parliamentary privilege - Is it not time that this so long should be
