

the term until the next general meeting of the Association, at which the officers are elected.

ARTICLE X.

NOTICE OF MOTION.—Permission to introduce any notice of amendment or amendments to this Constitution must be granted by a majority of two-thirds of the active members present. Permission being granted, notice may be given and the proposed amendment moved at any subsequent sitting. After discussion the amendment must be submitted to a Committee of five, named by the Chairman. The report of said Committee cannot be considered on the same day on which it is introduced. A two-thirds vote of all active members present shall be necessary for its adoption.

ARTICLE XI.

Notice of substantive motions is required, and no motion shall be discussed at the sitting at which the notice has been given, but this rule does not apply to merely formal motions, such as motions to adjourn. All reports of standing Committees are to be discussed at a sitting subsequent to the one at which such reports have been received. This rule may be suspended by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

ARTICLE XII.

All motions must be duly proposed and seconded, and shall, except those of a purely routine character, be in writing.

ARTICLE XIII.

No member shall speak more than once, or at a greater length than five minutes, upon any question until all others have had an opportunity of doing so, nor more than twice on any one question without permission of the Chairman, or a majority of the members entitled to vote. The mover of a substantive motion has the additional right to reply.

ARTICLE XIV.

Questions may be re-considered upon a motion to re-consider being made by a person who voted with the majority, provided such motion is carried unanimously. No discussion of the said
