RULES AND REGULATIONS.

permission, when all shall rise, and retire to his or her room, or employment, and no one shall take any article from the table. The monitors shall see that the table is immediately cleared, and be careful that the fragments are saved. No person shall be allowed any food except at the regular meals, unless prescribed by the physician.

9th. That the children, when capable, shall be bound out to proper persons, inhabitants of the province, to be approved by a justice of the peace, or any regular placed elergyman residing in the neighborhood of the applicant, who should undertake to act as guardians of such children, or by associations, which should be formed in different parts of the province for that purpose, who would undertake the task, the boys to be bound until eighteen years, and the girls until sixteen years, of whose actual state a yearly report to be furnished to the superintendent, that in his annual report a full view should be rendered of all who had been sent to the depot, such report to be forwarded to the Imperial as also Provincial Parliament, made up to the first of January in each year.

i

Ī.

D)

n

....

€

e

۱-

ŕ.

H

10th. None of the residents shall purchase, or have in his or their possession, any spirituous liquor, and the same shall always be taken by the superintendent, jurors or monitors, whenever found, and it shall not be restored. And the delinquent shall be punished as the jurors shall direct.

35

1

-