

fir-trees, tw
yellowish-b

A single and figure
the above
in this volu
of rapaciou
length, and

Falco sparverius
Falco dominicensis
Falco gracillimus

Adult. — Fro
the neck behind
from before the
rump and tail,
of the same rufous
the upper parts
black; quills brown
white, frequently
outer frequently
legs yellow; bare
very few, or entire times wanting.

Younger Male.
with numerous
longitudinal streaks
external feathers
wanting.

Young. — All
brownish-black
of black; under iris very dark brown Total length
to five and a half

This beaver
the New-England
a resident throughout species in