

VII

Others powers and duties of the T. H.

How the T. H. shall proceed to take lands for its use, c. 91.....	28 & 29
A judge of the Court of Queen's Bench to appoint an arbitrator in certain cases, c. 92.	29
T. H. may take the land after the arbitration on depositing the price awarded, c. 93....	29 & 30
T. H. not to purchase land or vessels without the consent of the gov. general, c. 94	30
T. H. may borrow money, c. 96.....	30 & 31
Loans made by the T. H. to have a preference over other payments or charges, c. 97.....	3
T. H. may buy a steamer, c. 104.....	32
Penalties how appropriated, c. 106.....	32
How to employ moneys borrowed and collected and not otherwise appropriated, c. 108.....	32
T. H. to publish a yearly account of the pilot's fund, c. 109.....	32 & 33
T. H. to lay statements of receipts and payments yearly before the legislature, c. 110	33
The Governor may require accounts from the T. H. at any time, c. 111.....	33

Officers of the T. H. and duties of the same.

Oaths to be administered free by the competent authorities c. 102.....	32
Salaries of the officers fixed, c. 3, sects. 1 & 2	7 & 8
Interpretation clause, c. 119.....	34
No member of the T. H. Q., to contract with the said body, same c. sect. 5.....	7
Officers of the T. H. Q., to take oath before entering on their duties of office, c. 14..	12
Officers of the T. H. to be subjected to its orders, c. 114.....	33
Officers of the T. H. not to serve as jurors, assessors or constables, c. 116.....	33
Two superintendants of pilots, one of which a Warden, same c. sect. 6.....	7
The Master of the T. H. Q., ex officio prin-	