driving the Germans back on their right wing, are hourly expected.

For the first time since the campaign began in France, the German force is opposed by one superior in number. General von Kluk is dropping back, after having suffered heavy losses. The army of General Von Buelow is being rushed to his aid.

AUSTRIA EXPECTS ITALIAN INVASION.

Austria evidently is expecting an Italian invasian, for advices from Rome, as well as Lucerne, Switzerland, state that 600,000 men have been concentrated at Trieste to repel the Italians should they advance, and that large bodies of troops have been sent to the eastern shores of the Adriatic to defend Dalmatia. It is said that the Italian army has been mobilizing for several days.

HOW RHEIMS WAS OCCUPIED.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 8.—An account of the circumstances under hich the Germans occupied the Town of Rheims is described in tance as follows from Berlin:

"Gen. Karl Von Hubrecht, lacking reliable information that the French had evacuated the town, determined to lead a patrol himself in order to ascertain whether the fortress Vitry Le Rheims still held out. Three officers, two sub-lieutenants, and seven privates volunteered to accompany him. The patrol, on reaching the fortress, found that it had been evacuated. The little body of men then proceeded to Rheims itself and the commander went to the town hall and announced that the city had been taken possession of by the Germans. They made the mayor hostage, in order to assure the safety of the German troops, and the following day the main force of the German army advanced upon the town with bands playing.

GERMANS APPROACH HOLLAND.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 8.—A Dutch newspaper is authority for the statement that the Germans are steadily approaching nearer to the Dutch frontier. Inhabitants of Belgian territory adjacent to the Dutch frontier are fleeing over the boundary, forsaking their belongings. Many destitute fugitives have arrived in Dutch Flanders. More than 2,000,000 residents have left Paris, thru fear of siege by the Germans. This does not include the 25,000 evicted from their homes in the second of in the environs of the city, because of the necessity for razing their houses to allow for an unobstructed sweep of artillery defences.

FIRED UPON THE GERMANS.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 8.—General Manteuffeul, the German commander at Louvain, asserts that investigations made since the destruction of a portion of the city, show that Belgian soldiers, wearing civilian attire over their uniforms, fired upon German soldiers from

An official statement from Berlin says that wounded prisoners in spite of all stories to the contrary, have been humanely treated by the German and Prussian military administration. The minister of the interior issued strict orders that the wounded, whether German soldiers or prisoners, be accorded equal care and humane treatment.

TURKEY'S POSITION.

It is semi-officially stated here that a message received in Berlin from Constantinople says that Turkey, which hitherto has maintained the strictest neutrality, is desirous of so continuing, but that should public opinion declare itself against this attitude, the government would not be responsible.

AEROPLANE FACTORY MOVED.

One of the largest German aeroplane factories, situated prior to the war in Muhlhausen, has now moved to an unknown site farther on the east side of the Rhine. The normal capacity of this factory is said to be three completed aeroplanes every fortnight.

GERMAN DEMANDS ON GHENT.

LONDON, Sept. 8, 6.25 p.m.—"The German general in command before Ghent has declared to the burgomaster that it is not his intention to enter the town. No war tax in money has been levied, but requisitions of food, forage and motors to the value of $10,000,-000 have been made. These are intended for the German troops in INDIAN FORCES IN ACTION.

That the Indian forces of the British army are taking an active part in the operations in France is indicated by the casualty lists. Among the names of the wounded made public, is that of Captain F. W. Hunt, 19th Lancers (Fane's Horse), Indian army.

ITALIAN INFANTRY LOST HEAVILY.

ROME, Sept. 8, via Paris, 6.41 p.m.—Despatches received here from Trieste, an Austrian seaport on the Adriatic Coast, say that mourning there is general, as the 97th and 27th Austrian infantry regiments, which lost 4000 men in Galicia, were composed of Italians from the Istria peninsula.

AUSTRIANS FEAR REVOLUTION.

PARIS, Sept. 8, 6.38 p.m.—A Petrograd despatch to the Havas Agency says that according to information received at the Russian capital the Austrians fear that a revolution will break out in Bukowina a crown land of Austria-Hungary in the region of the Carpathian mountains, where Hungarian sentiment is reported to be growing in Thanked Rowell.

The meeting was attended by more than fifty members representing practically every part of the province. Satisfaction was expressed at the nature of the last provincial election campaign. N. W. Rowell was thanked personally for his support of the "Abolish the Bar" forces. A clause in the report on policy presented last night outlined the high hopes of the alliance for government temperance action.

The report says: "We look to the government temperance action.

The report says: "We look to the government and its supporters to now embody in effective leg slation the promises made by them upon the platform, and the friendliness expressed to the temperance cause in their public addresses, in order that the government may be assured of the hearty co-operation of the alliance in every forward movement.

More Temperance Members.

"We rejoice at the splendid educational results secured by the campaign and at the election to the legislature of an increased number of members pledged to advanced measures of temperance reform."

More thoro teaching of scientific temperance in the public and separate schools of the province is recommended.

COFFERS OVERFLOW.

The campaign committee reported in regard to the different departments. In reference to field day work, the report showed a total of 1574 church services held in the first eight months, as com-pared with 1455 in 1914. The gross receipts from these services were $33.647 ceipts from these services were $33,647, as compared with $28,237 last year.
