

privileges, without compensation, to be determined only by the Commissioners ; but no compensation shall be payable for any such building or enclosure hereafter erected without consent of the Commissioners.

|| " 4th. That the Commissioners should determine the limit or boundary line to which the French may prosecute their fishery ; the British having the exclusive right of salmon and all other fishing in rivers.

" 5th. That the breadth of strand of which the French should have the right of temporary use for fishing purposes should be defined, thus removing objections to grants of land for all purposes beyond the boundary so to be defined, and within the same for mining purposes, right being reserved to the British Government to erect on such strand works of a military or other public character ; and to British subjects for wharves and buildings necessary for mining, trading, and other purposes, apart from the fishery, in places selected with the permission of the Commissioners.

" Passed the House of Assembly, 23rd April, 1874."
