

Where it is claimed that they have a cure of St. Anne, the grandmother of Christ, who is said to be the patron saint of the sick, restoring the dead and blind, also enabling the lame to walk without crutches, and curing the deaf and dumb. It is a fact that many go there by the aid of staves and crutches, and that many of them, after having been miraculously cured, they have been miraculously cured. For this time on and for fame of the place attracts thousands of pilgrims every year.
