.... The Suit That Suits....

"The suit that suits" implies the suit that fits, the suit that is stylish, well made, well trimmed, and in every way satisfies the person for whom it is made. Those are the suits we make, and not only satisfy our customers but our customers' friends, and show them an object lesson in stylish tailoring, with the result they call and see us when in need of an overcoat, suit or pants. Thus our trade is made.

RUPERT GARLAND'S DEATH.

Coroner and a Jury are Trying to Fathom the Affair-Who is the Mysterious Woman?

Yesterday afternoon, at the Morgue, Coroner Young commenced his enquiry in-to the cause of the death of Rupert Garland, who was found dead in his room at 124 Dalhousie-street. The first witness, Thomas Houlgrave, 51 Elizabeth-street, who knew the deceased for 30 years, was ck of Hornellsville, the last to see him alive. He called at N. Y., at the Head-An Undertaking Garland's room about 4 o'clock Friday af-That With Industry, Intelligence and termoon and found him lying in bed. He

Congratulate the Pastor on His

Length of Service.

The gathering in Old St. Andrew's Church last night was, in many respects, a memorable one. The congregation with their friends assembled to celebrate the completion of the twentleth year of the pastorate of Rev. G. M. Milligan, D.D., and to express their warm regard and thorough appreciation of the many excellent qualities which have endeared him to very member. It is not often that it is given to pastor and congregation to enjoy for so many years the uninterrupted harmony and mutual confidence and esteem which have characterized the relations between the people of Old St. Andrew's and Rev. G. M. Milligan.

The church was filled with those anxious to do honor to the occasion, many former members from various parts of the city being present. The chair was occupied by Rev. Prof. Maclaren of Knox College, who was moderator of the Session at the time of Rev. Mr. Milligan's induction.
Upon the platform were Revs. John Neil,
B.A.; H. M. Parsons, John Mutch, Grant, W. A. Hunter, Louis H. Jordan, A. Gilray, Morrison, Alexander McMilan and Rev. A. H. Baldwin of All Saints' Church.
Principal Kirkland, one of the members of the original Session of 20 years ago, spoke at length, reviewing the progress made and the magnificent work done by the pastor during the intervening years.
Rev. Arthur Baldwin conveyed the greetings of the Anglican Church and testified to the broad and liberal spirit which had characterized his ministry.

All the different societies and organizations in connection with the church paid their tribute of respect and reverence to the guest of the evening. Mr. Mc.
Murchy delivered an address upon behalf of the Session of the church. Dr. Price Brown read an address on behalf of the congregation, which bore striking testimony to the strength of the bond which binds pastor and people. Mr. Alexander Jardine performed a similar duty on behalf of the Laddes' Society.
Letters of regret at their inability to be present and conveying the w

The Keetenni Country

Deserves all the good things that are said of it. It is the coming mining region of the west. Not a week passes that some discovery is not made in Rossland finer than anything that has preceded it. The completion of the Red Mountain Railroad makes direct rail connection with that place and Spokane, Washington. Rail connection also exists via Northport and Nelson, with the Nelson, Kaslo, Ainsworth and Slocan districts. These connections are made to best advantage by using the Northern Pacific Railway to Spokane. Capital is pouring into this country in a constant stream. A man can get pretty much anything he wants—a gold mine, a silver mine, or town lots. Don't wait too long before you go. Write to Charles S. Fee, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, St. Paul, Mim., or W. G. Mason, District Passenger Agent, 215 Ellicott-Square, Buffalo, N. Y.

A famous Painting.

A very famous painting entitled "Lot, or The Flight from Sodom," by Cari Herman Welss (Berlin, 1848), will be offered for sale at Dickson's auction rooms on 29th inst. It is one of the most important productions of this celebrated German master and was quite recently imported into Canada for exhibition purposes. Art connoisseurs pronounce it as one of the most dramatic paintings ever seen in this country. The actual cash value of the work is $2500, and Mr. Dickson states that he has received positive instructions to sell it.
