To-Day on Wall Street.

The market on Wall-street opened strong again this morning, and except for a heavy hour or so in the forenoon continued strong till the close. Louisville & Nashville was buoyant owing to the returns showing an increase of over $29,000 in earnings for the third wek in March, as compared with the same week last year. Wabash earnings increased $31,000. B.R.T. was a feature, rising 5 points. Atchison, Southern and the grangers were strong. The close was generally firm, with gains for the session throughout the list.

Messys. Henry Clews & Co., New York, to-day advised Kerr & Morson as follows: "The continued fear of the results of active money is still dwarfing speculation, but it is the general feeling that we are not likely to have any prolonged period of stringency at this time. The general list of stocks, while dull, shows a firm tone." in the city.

Notes by Cable. Consols rose 1/8 in London to-day. American rails rose 1/8 to 5/8 in London to
