EX-MAYOR COWAN PASSES AWAY

Died Shortly After Nine O'Clook This Morning From Heart Trouble.

Was Out Around the Garden Only Yesterday-Brief Sketch of a Busy Life.

Ex-Mayor James Cowan died at his late residence, "Birkhill," 639 Talbot street, this morning, shortly after nine o'clock, from heart trouble.

Mr. Cowan had been ailing for some two months, and slight hopes were held out for his recovery. But recently he driving the early part of this week. Only yesterday he was out working in the garden. The news of his sudden demise will be heard with sorrow and general regret, as Mr. Cowan was a public-spirited citizen, and had a warmth of personality, which endeared out Western Ontario. He had reached the advanced age of 67 years.

Deceased, who was one of the most successful businessmen of London, was born in county Kirkcudbright, Scotland, in 1832, and was the seventh son of John and Margaret Cowan. At the age of 15 years he commenced to learn the business of ironmongery, his parents having died when he was but 7 years old. In 1854, Mr. Cowan managed a hardware business in Liberpool, and in 1854 returned to his native land and married Miss Elspeth Wells. He sailed with his bride for New York, arriving Oct. 22, 1854. The ship West Point, on which they took passage, had cholera on board, and 20 passengers and four men died of the disease. In 1855 Mr. Cowan came to Canada and obtained a situation with Adam Hope & Co., of this city. He remain-ed in their employ until 1864, when he left to form a partnership with James Wright, under the firm title of Cowan, Wright & Co., and the business was continued under this name until 1875, when the partnership was dis-solved. The firm then became known as James Cowan & Co.

Mr. Cowan's first wife died in 1858, and he was married a second time to Miss Annie, daughter of Mr. Waddell, veterinary surgeon in the Royal Arveterinary surgeon in the Royal Ar-tillery, stationed at Niagara. He al-ways took a deep interest in every-thing calculated to advance the inter-ests of the city, and in 1887 and 1888 was elected mayor. During his term of two years he proved himself an able and efficient civic servant. He was a member of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Societies and an expresident of the former. He was a staunch Liberal in politics and a member and active worker in the Reform ber and active worker in the Reform Association of this city. He was also a member of the Masonic order. In religion he adhered to the Presbyterian denomination, and was one of the founders of St. James' Presbyterian Church. He was the last survivor of the original board of managers and its first treasurer. its first treasurer.

Mr. Cowan was a man of great personal and mental activity, and no tically led a retired life.

Mrs. Cowan died in October, 1896. Six sons and three daughters survive. They are: David, of the James Cowan Hardware Company; Robert K., local master and deputy registrar, high court of justice; Thomas, of Vancouver, B. C.; John, of Seattle; Harper and Dr. Charles, city; daughters at home.

Mr. Cowan was an uncle of the late

A. K. Melbourne, who died suddenly last Tuesday at Buffalo. Mr. Melbourne was at one time a member of the firm of Cowan, Wright & Co.

James Cowan was the last surviving member of the firm of Cowan, Wright & Co. The other members, James Wright, John Bland, and A. K. Melbourne having died within the past fifteen months.

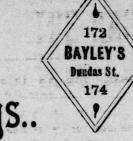

MRS. MARY GREGORY. Mrs. Mary Gregory, of this city, died yesterday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Reibling, Detroit, Mich. Death was caused by paralysis. Deceased was 79 years of age. She was the widow of the late Thomas Gregory. Mrs. Gregory Vis born in Somersetshire, England, and removed to this city with her husband and family in 1887. Five sons and one daughter survive. They are: Samuel and George, in this city; James, in Lansing, Mich.; Thomas and William, in England, and Mary (Mrs. Reibling), in Detroit. The remains will arrive here from Detroit this afternoon, at 4:30, for interment in Woodland Cemetery.

MRS. MOSES TROTMAN. Detroit Free Press: "Moses Trotman, an old man living at 1609 Hastings street, was horrified to find his wife, Margaret, dead in her bed when he returned home yesterday afternoon after a short absence. Mrs. Trotman had been ailing for two years. Yesterday noon she was feeling comparatively well, but when her husband left shortly after dinner to visit a sick daughter a few blocks away, she complained of feeling bad and retired to bed. Mr. Trotman was gone all afternoon, re-turning shortly after 5 o'clock. On entering the house he could not awaken his wife and stepping to her bedside found her dead. Coroner Forth was called. Death had resulted from heart disease and the coroner decided that an inquest was unnecessary. Mrs. Trotman was 66 years of age and had resided in Detroit for many years. She leaves five children." The Trotmans were much esteemed residents of London many years ago, and will be well remembered by the older citizens. They were members of the York, now Talbot Street Baptist Church, in which both Mr. and Mrs. Trotman were active workers.

GLENCOE VOTES FOR A LIBRARY Glencoe, Ont., April 21.-A vote was taken yesterday on a petition asking the council to establish a library under the libraries act. The enthusiasm of the citizens was very strongly snown, almost a full vote being polled, resulting in a majority of 35 in favor of the petition.

A DINNER PILL. — Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment, it becomes a poison to the system. Dr. Parmiee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and convey the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with indigestion. A DINNER PILL. - Many persons

Filipinos Attack the Washington Regiment's Outposts.

No Word Received of the 15 Missing Americans.

Some of the Dons Don't Know the American-Spanish War Is Cver -Volunteers Bound to Come Home.

Manila, April 21-10:45 a.m.-A force of about 200 Filipinos yesterday afternoon attacked the outposts of the Washington regiment, near Taguig, south of Pasig and Pateros. Two companies immediately engaged the enemy and advanced into the open in skirmish Mrs. B. Hunt, city, and two unmarried order. The rebels were checked and routed after two hours' fighting, leaving twelve men killed on the field, and several wounded. The American troops also obtained possession of many Mauser rifles and other weapons. Three Americans were wounded.

AMERICANS RAN OUT OF POW-

DER. 4:05 p.m.-At six o'clock this morning three companies of the South Dakota regiment marched from Bocave, and, in conjunction with three companies of the Minnesota regiment, from Guiguinto, north of Bocave, encountered a rebel force numbering fully five hundred men, when two miles out. The enemy retired three miles in fairly good order, in spite of the fact that the rebels suffered heavy losses. The Americans having exhausted their ammunition, they were compelled to return to their camps.

THOSE MISSING MEN.

New York, April 21.—A dispatch to the Herald from Manila says: Admiral Dewey, in an interview Thursday, said the expedition of the gunboat Yorktown to Baler was purely to rescue the Spanish soldiers and priests, who are being besieged in a church there. The soldiers refused to surrender when ordered to lay down their arms by General Rios, at the end of the Paris peace commission. Admiral Dewey said he did not know what had become of Lieutenant Gilmore and the 14 men in the launch. They had been sent to sound the mouth of the river, but went beyond the bend, out of sight of the Yorktown. The supposition is they were captured or killed by the Spaniards or the four hundred insurgents who are besieging the Spanish garrison. Admiral Dewey declined to say what steps he would take toward a punitive expedition.

BEHIND THE TIMES. General Rios, the Spanish commander, when interviewed, said he did not think the garrison at Baler knew that the war between the United States and Spain had ended. He had sent an officer in January to tell the garrison to surrender, either not believing the officer or fearing they would be trapped by the insurgents. Since then General Rios had had no communication with the garrison, and this is the first information he has had that the Spanish flag is still flying at Baler. He thought the Americans were shot at by the insurgents, as the Spaniards themselves are besieged, and have no way of getting to the river. General Rios said he had not been consulted.

General Rios doubted whether the proposed exchange of Filipino for Spanish soldiers would succeed, as the insurgents are holding the Spaniards in the hope that it will help their cause. Spain's evacuation of the Philippine Islands will be practically completed by the withdrawal of the Spanish garrison from Zamboanga, Island of Mindanao, and from the Zulu Islands.

IN A SAD PLIGHT. The native troops in the Spanish carrison are in a sad plight. They putated. Nelson said he was a native must accompany the Spaniards or risk the vengeance of their compatriots. The Spaniards propose to dis-band them, but they refuse to give up their arms. The natives of Zam-

"NEXT CASE!"

Justice Forcibly Dealt Out by a New York Magistrate.

Bath, N. Y., April 21.—Police Justice John A. Adams, of this village, yesterday dealt out justice in both legal and physical doses to James Kinney, who was up before him on a charge of wife-beating, as he had been many times before. Being well acquainted with the misfortunes of the ill-treated wife, Justice Adams promptly sentenced Kinney to serve six months in the county jail, and pay a fine of $50. "My only regret is that the law does not allow me to give, you a longer sentence," remarked the justice to the prisoner. "It that all judge? How about that $1 70 back in '91?" The cool impudence of the prisoner was too much for the disgusted magistrate. promptly stepped from behind his desk and scientifically administered to the grinning prisoner a blow that sent him sprawling to the floor. "Next case!" calmly called out the judge, as he resumed his seat on the bench.

Simply Management --- That's All

From the smallest trader to national governments, and all the way between, both private and public-

Management regulates results. Two grocers on the same street: one earns twice the other's per cent or profit. Difference in business management, that's all.

Two cities in the same province; one collects a very much greater per cent of taxes than the other. Difference in municipal management, that's all.

Two life insurance companies insure two men of the same age at the same time; one earns and pays very much greater dividends than the other. Diference in insurance management, Let us give actual experience.

In 1883 the Ontario Mutual Life insured a citizen of Montreal for $2,000, fifteen year endowment, issued at age 45, with dividends to reduce the premiums. The original premium was The annual dividends so re-$127 84. duced the premiums that the net cost of the $2,000 was $1,657 69, the policy thus yielding the insured a profit of $342 31. The same year another Canadian company insured a citizen of Hamilton for $1,000, fifteen year endowment, age 45, dividends to be declared each five dividends were $16871, thus reducing the net cost to $893 29, the policy yielding a profit to the insured of $106 71. Look at the two results: Ontario Mutual, gain for $2,000...$342 31 The other company, gain for $1,000, $106 71. Gain for $2,000... 213 42
