AT THE ALLEN.

Two unusual feature films, both finely produced, are being shown at the Allen Theatre the latter part of this week. Jack Pickford is the star in a well-constructed photoplay built upon O. Henry's story. "A Double-Dyed Deciver." and Ethel Clayton appears in an out-of-the-ordinary romantic drama, "Vicky Van." Lovers of O. Henry's subtly woven gems of fiction who attended the Allen Thursday were delighted yith the thorough capability with which Jack Pickford impersonated the leading role in the pathetic drama of a motherheart saved from breaking by the deception of the youth who bravely but unhappily had killed the wandering boy who was the real heir to the South American chateau at Buenas Tierras. Love between two youthful hearts also figures in the story and weaves the happy climax.

"Vicky Van" is a different type of drama with a plot that is new and novel, exceedingly rich in romantic interest, and love and happiness granted at last to a young heart starved, re-pressed and cruelly tortured in a stern New England environment. The haughty Misses Schuyler never dreamed that the mysterious Vicky Van in the house next or was the laughter-loving yoong wife of their supposedly upright nephew. After all it was a harmless, rollicking, well-intentioned Bohemian coterie of society which Vicky led, and nothing tragic would have come of her decep-tion had not her own husband, tired of the other woman and through a fellow the other woman and through a fellow clubman, sought an introduction to the new and far-famed queen of gay Bohemia. Discovering Vicky's identity, her lord and master brutally attacked her, and to save her life, her old nurse slew him. Vicky completely disappeared, but of course it was an easy matter for a first class detective to find the secret panel in the wall between the two houses, and the poor, old nurse

Nat Haines brings all his wealth of theatrical experience to bear on this production, and the result is a musical comedy that could not be outdistanced by anything off Broadway. Not a little of his success is due to the capable company he has at his direction. His principals are leaders in their respective line, and as for the young ladies in the chorus—they must

"All my friends were saying that I looked like a ghost a few months ago, but you wouldn't think so to look at me now, and the wonderful change in my appearance is entirely due to "Tanlac," said Romee Fortin, when seen by the Tanlac representative at the well-known meat market, 2151 St. Catharines east, Montreal, recently.

"Until I started taking Tanlac, I was in very bad health," continued Mr. Fortin, "I had suffered from indigestion for five years. #### FROM A CHILD WAS CONSTIPATED

According to the best medical authorities, fully three-fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from costiveness or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches. jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, obtain.

The staging was good, especially in the opening and closing scenes, played in a quaint little fishing village on Nantucket Island. The village had the appearance of having been dug out of a history book of the eighteenth century. The story was the old, old tale of a young girl setting out hopeful of earning a fortune in New York, and her ensuing temptations and trials.

Besides this picture there is a comedy, a news and scenic film which completed a program which will be repeated today and tomorrow.

before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, trouble-some piles. Therefore, it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used, and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This, with the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases.
