"Polly of the Circus."

The Princess Theatre will offer as its attraction for next week, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday, Frederick Thompson's production, "Polly of the Circus," with Gwendolyn Piers.

Miss Piers is one of the youngest leading women on the stage. The scenes of "Polly of the Circus" are laid in a small town in the middle west, where a circus is playing on a lot adjoining the parsonage. Polly, the principal rider has a mishap in the ring and as there is no hospital in the town she is taken to the clergyman's home for care. Until that time she has known nothing of any life except that under the white top. During the long period of convalescence her very artlessness makes a tremendous appeal to the clergyman, who is in love before he knows it.

THE EXHILARATION OF AN OUTING.

Break the winter monotony of business now with a trip to Florida. and get a loafing rest amid perennial greens. There is great sport in Florida at this season of the year. Motoring on the great Ormond-Daytona beach, motor-boating on Lake Worth, golfing, hunting, and fishing, garden parties in the cocoanut groves—almost anything you want to make life delightful for a week, a fortnight, or a month.

If you haven't the time for a trip to Florida, there is Pinehurst, with its golf tournaments and out-door sports, Summerville, Aiken, Augusta, Southern Pines, and other attractive resorts in the middle South.

Still nearer at hand, and always attractive and entertaining, is Atlantic City, the year-round rendezvous of all who love the sea and its inspiriting air. It boasts on its beach some of the best hotels in the world, and a golf course the equal of any. The out-of-door life at Atlantic City is always vitalizing.

Cape May offers a genial but bracing climate, good hotels and golf links that are open throughout the season. Parlor cars on the express trains.

Winter excursion tickets to Florida and southern resorts read via Washington, with stop-over privilege at the National Capital. Tickets at same fares may be had via Philadelphia, good to stop over at that point for side-trips to Atlantic City, New York, etc.

Get away from the desk, the counting house, the office, the shop; forget your business for a while and enjoy the life you live and the world you live in by taking a run to one of the attractive winter resorts.
