NEWMARKET WAS THE GREAT RALLY POINT

York County Orangemen Have Best Parade Ever—Notes of the Event—County Doings.

NEWMARKET, July 12.—(Special.)—The greatest day this historic old town ever saw in all its long history was brought to a happy conclusion here to-night when to the music of a score of bands, the members of as many Orange lodges from all parts of York County marched to the station prior to their departure for their several homes. Lowering skies and a heavy down-pour of rain together with the absence of the kindly face of Old Sol in the early part of the day, served not to dampen the ardor of the visiting brethren, but when the clouds were finally dispersed and the sun shone bright and clear, for a time at least, their joy was full.

It was a great day for Newmarket, and her loyal citizens vied with each other in doing honor to the visitors. Many of the private residences and a number of the business houses were lavishly decorated with bunting, while at short intervals were streamers bearing such mottoes as these: "Welcome," "Equal Rights for All," and "God Save Our King."

On the arrival of the visiting brethren from West Toronto, who came up by special G. T. R. train, they were met and escorted to luncheon, as were the members of Eglinton lodge, who came up in two heavily loaded Metropolitan cars, and so with Coronation lodge of East Toronto. The brethren from Woodbridge joined the West Toronto contingent at Thornhill, while the Schomberg and Lloyd-Township brethren came in on the Schomberg line. And then there was the Mount Albert and Bradford lodges and Aurora with Herb Lennox and the veteran Orangemen, "Father" Taylor with his sons and grandsons.

At 2 o'clock a procession was formed east and west of Main-street, and marching south, headed by the King William on a fine charger, for the agricultural grounds where the sports were held. These lodges were in the parade: McCormack L.O.L., No. 212, Precinctory, with Bro. J. A. Findlay, W.M., in charge, and W. J. Conron, secretary. They were headed by their fine cadet band, and altogether made a splendid appearance. Later they were accorded the first prize, being dressed in lodge, and likewise scored first place for the lodge with largest membership. Aurora L. O. L., No. 648, Harry Shea, W.M., 48 strong, with their fine band of 20 pieces, made a great hit. Eglinton L. O. L., No. 259, 60 strong, Bro. W. E. Hopkins, W.M., in charge, headed by the fine North Toronto Citizens' Band, in their splendid new navy uniforms, and playing the delightful music for which they are justly famed. They were the admitted victors and not even the crack McCormack's elicited more attention and admiration.

Other lodges in the parade were Coronation L. O. L., No. 218, Bro. S. Davis, 50 strong. St. John's L.O.L., No. 204, bearing their fine new banner on which was a splendid picture of the late lamented J. W. St. John, and underneath the words, "We honor his memory." This was the baby lodge of the parade, having only been started in March last. Mount Albert L. O. L., No. 902, about 50 strong. Northern View L. O. L., of Schomberg, 25 strong, W. M. Bro. Jacob Gould in charge. Woodbridge L. O. L., No. 28, with a fine cadet band and 60 members in line. A feature of Woodbridge lodge was the presence of Bro. T. G. Wallace, M.P., with their little band of about 40 boys strikingly attired and marching with the precision of veterans, and wasn't Tom proud of them? Purple Star L.O.L. of West Toronto, No. 902, about 50 strong, George Lee, W.M. Coulson Lodge, L.O.L., No. 885, T. M. Lee, W.M. Bradford Lodge, L.O.L., A. Scanlon, W.M., No. 694, with their fine drum band and 60 strong. Grouse Hill L.O.L., No. 191, about 40 strong.

In the unavoidable absence of Mayor Pearson the address of welcome to the visiting brethren was given by Bro. J. D. N. McKay of Newmarket and short stirring speeches by Bro. George Taylor of Aurora, Worshipful Pastmaster Bro. Fred Dyer of Toronto, Bro. T. G. Wallace, M.P., Worshipful Bro. W. A. Baird and a number of others.

"We are strong enough in Ontario to maintain our rights," said Capt. Wallace, "but we must guard especially the public school which is being undermined." Capt. Wallace attacked the Canadian navy, the control of which must be vested in the British navy, and not in Sir Wilfrid who could not be depended upon in an emergency.

"I have not one iota of sympathy with the change in the coronation oath" was a statement by Rev. Mr. Crawford, formerly of Newmarket, that brought ringing cheers from the big crowd.

"The Orange Order stands for equal rights to all and special privileges to none," said Worshipful Master Fred Dane, and the splendid demonstration of to-day in the sobriety and order shown is in answer to those who seek to injure the order. He counselled them to early inculcate the principles and aims of the order in their children.

A good program of games was run off with "Herb" Lennox as the guiding star in the management of affairs and everything ran smoothly. The tug-of-war alone was unfinished in the final between Earlscourt and the Northern District, a protest having been made by Earlscourt.

The lacrosse game between Woodbridge and Newmarket went to Woodbridge by a score of 2 to 1.

Notes of the Day.
Police Magistrate Peter Ellis was in his element getting everything running smoothly. "This is a delightful change to dispensing justice," said the genial magistrate.

J. C. Steele of Thornhill Lodge was up with the Thornhill boys. In his turn he was not an old man. Mr. Steele has been county master in East and West Wellington and in York County.

Bro. ex-Ald. "Andy" McMillan came up with Coronation Lodge from East Toronto and enjoyed immensely the day's proceedings.

"Before ever Newmarket had invited us we in West Toronto had made up our minds to come here," said W. A. Baird. "We have long heard of your hospitality."

McMormack L.O.L. took the coveted honor for best dressed lodge, but Eglinton was a mighty good second. Watch out next year.

There was abundant provision for all the Methodist, Presbyterian and Friends' Churches together with the Citizens' Hotel catering to the big crowd.

There was hardly a corporal's guard left in North Toronto. No name in the annals of York County Orangemen is more revered than that of the late N. Clarke Wallace.

Nearly every man prominent in the municipal life of York County found his way to Newmarket yesterday.

The Metropolitan Railway gave a good service throughout the day.

NORTH TORONTO, July 12.—(Special.)—Councillor Frank Howe does not take kindly to the way in which the double-tracking project between town and Metropolitan has been handled to date.

When the question was first broached to council Mr. Howe was averse to treating in the matter without the knowledge and consent of the ratepayers, but later it was thought advisable to handle the whole matter behind closed doors, literally speaking, and this being understood, he looks upon it as a violation of a pledge for some member of council to divulge state secrets. There is a right and wrong way to do everything.

For once this summer the dust has been thoroughly laid on Yonge-street and driving can be done in comparative comfort.

Town Clerk W. J. Douglas succeeded in tearing himself away from his official duties to-day long enough to run up to Newmarket with his lodge and get a good look at the crops en route.

Mayor "Loney" Brown of North Toronto was proud of the showing made by his town and lodge, and well he might be.

"Uncle" George Wallace of Woodbridge celebrated to-day his 55th birthday into the Orange order and is as spry as any of the young fellows yet.

UNIONVILLE, July 12.—(Special.)—An interesting service will be held at the corner-stone of Bethesda Lutheran Church will be laid. The pastor will be assisted by the Rev. J. V. Sappen, of Sherwood, who will make the principal address. Other speakers are expected to be present. The stone will be laid according to the ritual of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

THE LUTHERAN Church is among the oldest Christian churches in Markham Township. St. John's, Buttontown, was organized in 1780, and Bethesda, Unionville, in 1794.

FOR THE SUPREME TEST.
Are Narrowed Down to Eleven and Winner Will Soon Be Known.

Simpson Rennie of this city and W. F. Stephens of Quebec yesterday began the judging of prize farms in the "Farm and Dairy" competition inaugurated a year or so ago by that journal.

Only those who were successful in the original tests are eligible in this competition, and altogether, about 11 farms will be judged. Yesterday the magnificently appointed farm of Oldfield D. Bales on the outskirts of the city was under the limelight, and to-day that of David Duncan of Don will be visited.

Unless Mr. Rennie's governmental duties conflict, the judging will be pushed to a conclusion and the result may soon be known.

ARE TALKING ABOUT IT NOW.
Interest already in the coming Conservative picnic at Jack's Point, Wednesday, July 20, just a week from to-day, has been greatly aroused and the promise to be the greatest ever. The arrangements are now about as perfect as a first-class committee can make them, and, with the laying out of the way, many of the best speakers in Canada present, and cheap fares on the railways, the day promises to be a memorable one in North York.

Tickets at above rate will be on sale at Canadian Pacific Railway, Toronto offices, Saturday, July 16, for 8 a. m. train, good returning all regular trains up to Monday, July 18. Four trains from Toronto to Toronto. City Ticket office, southeast corner King and Yonge-streets.
