器 SOCIETY 器

Ross, I.S.O., and Mrs. Ross, to Mr. Goddon Lloyd Gullock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nanton are in town from Winnipeg for the closing exercises of the schools, at which their two daughters and two sons are being educated.

St. Paul's Church, Bloor street, was the scene of a quiet wedding at half-past two yesterday afternoon, when the marriage was solemnized of Edna May (Maisle), youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lennox, to Mr. Herbert Douglas Eckardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Eckardt, of Edgemont, East Queen street. Palms and ferns decorated the beautiful church, and a large basket of white flowers was on the altar. Archdeacon Cody performed the ceremony. Dr. Healy Willan played the wedding music, and Miss Hicks-Lyne sang a solo during the signing of the register. The bride was brought in by her father, and very lovely she looked in her gown of white tulle, embroidered with silver, and veil of Brussels applique lace, worn over her face. The corsage of the grown had a little jacket of tulle, embroidered with silver roses. The skirt, which hooped over the hips, was very full, and its picot-edged flounces were also silver embroidered. From the shoulders hung a court train of tulle, lined with shell pink, and with bands of silver round it. The veil of lace was arranged in a cap, with orange blossoms, and came down over the face, and to the end of the square train, and she carried a bouquet of lilles of the valley and Sweetheart roses. She also wore the bridegroom's sift, a diamond and platinum pendant.

Mrs. Flavelle and Mrs. Levescopte received in the drawing-room, which was filled with the subtle scent of the hundreds of Madonna lilies in the adjoining palm-room, thru which the best of Toronto's musicians were heard, the music sounding quite elfin in the unusual surroundings of misty moonlight, faintly illuminating the shrubs and flowers, laden with the bloom of June. Festoons of electric lights in green and red, from tree to tree, and the straceful figures of pretty griss in powder and patches, added their quota of loveliness to an altogether enchanting scene. Mrs. Barrett and her sister. Miss Flavelle, were assistant hostesses, and Mrs. Development of the bride and illies for their unfailing kindness and hospitality.

The marriage takes place this evening at the postoffice residence of Miss Frances, Ross, daughter of Lt.-Col. George Ross, I.S.O., and Mrs. Ross, to Mr. Goddon Lloyd Gullock.

Commencing Sunday, June 25th, the Grand Trunk Railway System will op-erate new train, consisting of first-class coaches and electric-lighted standard sleeping cars, to Detroit and Chicago, leaving Toronto 11.30 p.m. daily, arriving Detroit 7.20 a.m. and Chicago 3-15 p.m. This train will run via Brampton, Guelph, Stratford, Lon-don and Port Huron and will be a great conveniece to passengers from Brampton, Guelph, etc., who desire to spend the evening in Toronto and still re-turn to their homes the same night. The Grand Trunk believe that the pat-rons of their road between Toronto and Detroit are anxious for a night service between these two points similar to their unexcelled service between Toronto and Montreal and it is with a view of giving every comfort to their passengers that this new train is being operated. Special attention is drawn to the arrival time in Detroit of 7.20 a.m. Further information, ticketc, etc. at City Ticket Office, Northwest Corner King and Yonge Streets, and Union Station. edif

WAS SERIOUSLY BURNED WHEN LAMP EXPLODED

Mrs. Priscilla Kirby Confined to Grace Hospital and Will Recover.

While descending the stairs with a lamp last night, Mrs. Priscilla Kirby, 332 Jarvis street, stumbled and fell, the lamp exploding and igniting her nightgown. A roomer, J. Cartwright, hearing her screams, tried to extinguish the flames and had his hands burned, while another roomer rang in an alarm for the firemen. Capt. Burt, No. 1 truck, rendered first aid, after which Mrs. Kirby was removed to Grace Hospital. She is badly burned about the body, but will recover.

SAID DRIVER COULD NOT HAVE AVERTED ACCIDENT

Jury at Inquest on Body of Ray Burgess Did Not Attach Blame.

Before Coroner L. Pickering, an inquest was held last night on the death of Roy Burgess, aged 3 years, of 380 Harbord street, who was killed on June 6, when struck by a motor truck driven by Fred Robinson, 133 Gamble avenue, Todmorden. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, no blame being attached to anyone for the accident. Nine witnesses were heard and each claimed that the driver could not avoid striking the child.

PRAISED THE FIREMEN.

W. Smith, chief of the Toronto Fire department, has received a letter from A. W. Carrick, expressing apprecia-tion and thanks to the department and especially to the Bay street section. for the efficient manner in which a fire on his premises was extinguished.

He adds that there was little loss by water and this reflects great credit on the brigade as a whole and the officers in command.
