G. S. MAYES HONORED BY ST. GEORGE'S SOCIETY

The members of St. George's Society have bestowed a signal honor upon G. S. Mayes, who was president of the society for the years 1913 and 1914. They have presented to him an emblem in the form of an eight pointed silver star with ribbon and bar, which has on one side: "Presented to G. S. Mayes, Esq., by St. George's Society, 1913-1914." On the reverse is a St. George's cross, worked in red in metals, and around it the words: "Past-President, 1913-1914." The bar provides a place for engraving also. This is the first time the society has extended so great an honor to a past president, and Mr. Mayes is naturally very grateful to his fellow members.

ARTIFICIAL LIMB PROVIDED FOR HIM

The Times yesterday received a call from a young man who all his life will remember with gratitude the members of Royal Standard Chapter, Daughters of the Empire. He is Russell Carmichael of Hantsport, Kings county. The Times recently told the story of how Mrs. E. A. Smith and the members of the Royal Standard Chapter had been interested in a young man who had not had the use of one of his limbs since childhood. Mr. Carmichael is the young man in question. He came into the Times office yesterday walking on an artificial limb which had been adjusted on the day before, and which was secured from New York with funds provided by the ladies in question. He desires publicly to express his gratitude to them and to the ladies in question. He adds that he now hopes to be able to make something more of his life than could ever have been possible under the old conditions.

SEVERAL MATTERS BEFORE JUDGE FORBES

David Hennessy was again brought before Judge Forbes this morning and sentenced to serve the balance of a term in Dorchester penitentiary, which he had formerly been allowed out on ticket-of-leave. This amounts to about three years and three months. The parole was granted about two years ago. William Pelley, Robert E. Walker and Joseph Kelley were tried under the speedy trial act on the charge of assaulting Joseph M. Xenos in George Martin's store in Dock street. Kelley and Walker were discharged, and Pelley was allowed out on suspended sentence. According to the statements made, Walker and Kelley had nothing to do with the affair except that they were with Pelley. H. S. Keith appeared for the defendants.

John Lane was sent by the police magistrates before his honor to be dealt with on a previous charge of assaulting Mrs. Lupez. He was allowed to go on condition that he leave the city. Mrs. Ferguson prosecuted and J. A. Barry represented the attorney-general in the Hennessy case.

LANCASTER RED CROSS

The work of the Lancaster Red Cross Circle goes steadily on notwithstanding the many other duties of its members. On March 29 an appeal for socks for Dr. J. L. Duval's ambulance corps was laid before the ladies. All were in favor of sending a donation to these brave fellows, most of whom are from St. John and Lunenburg. April 5 just one week was the time limit set. Great satisfaction was expressed when the list came to find that 171 pairs of socks had been sent in and on Thursday, when the box was packed, there were 202 pairs, 100 packages of cigarettes besides a very generous donation of the Red Cross Co., consisting of cigarettes, children's, throat lozenges, gum and mustard plasters.

The ladies of the sewing committee have not been idle either, having made twelve combination suits during the week. These with thirty-six suits of pajamas, forty-eight hospital shirts, thirty-six crutch pads, complete the list for the month.

The urgent need for hospital supplies has given the work a great impetus, and the ladies have to thank the following new knitters for co-operation: Mrs. Isabel McCutcheon, Mrs. Robt. Belyea, Mrs. William G. Cochrane, Mrs. Charles F. Queen, Mrs. B. Colwell, all from Glenville, Queens County, with Mrs. W. O. Dunham, Mrs. John Fullerton, Miss Edith Emerson, Miss Hazel Holder, Miss Alice Fullerton, Mrs. Clinton D'Arcy, Mrs. J. F. Smith, Mrs. Leila H. Clark, Mrs. Edward Moore, Mrs. Thomas Stears, Miss Mable Keith, Miss Alice Stears, Mrs. John Stears, Mrs. James Belyea, Mrs. H. W. McCarron, Ludlow St. Baptist Relief Society, Mrs. Wellington Lord, Mrs. Wm. Miller, Mrs. William Speight, Mrs. J. Cochrane, Mrs. Appleby, Mrs. John Covey, Mrs. McKeown, Mrs. Wm. McCoway, Mrs. Jas. Lowell, Methodist Church Ladies' Aid and Mrs. Alex. Scott, Miss Edith Long, Miss Lillian Griffiths, Mrs. Murray Long, Mrs. James McLennan, Mrs. Thos. Armstrong, Mrs. Geo. Armstrong, Mrs. William Simpson, Mrs. Annie Townsend, Mrs. Alberta Townsend, Miss Edith Owens, Miss F. Black, Miss May McLeod, Mrs. Halifax, Mrs. J. M. Queen, Mrs. Harry Dorey, Mrs. J. H. Morris, Mrs. J. H. Theall, Mrs. T. W. Perry, Mrs. Geo. Vaughan, Mrs. James Manchester, Mrs. P. B. Carter, Mrs. W. I. Fenton.

MRS. J. R. McRAE
Mrs. Annie Elizabeth, wife of J. R. McRae, died on May 7 in her 88th year, leaving her husband and three children, her father, Joseph Sproul of this city, and three sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Miss Archie Sharp of Boston and Mrs. Charles Horton and Mrs. Samuel Rolston of this city. Her brothers are Hartley and Joseph and James of Maine. The funeral will take place from her late residence, 189 Erin street, on Sunday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock.

CHANGE OF QUARTERS
Victoria True Blue Lodge, No. 98 last evening celebrated the removal of their lodge room from the market building to Orange Hall, Gormley street. After the initiation of candidates had been accomplished the evening was given over to social enjoyment. A table was spread and the members sat down to a daintily served supper.

FOR NO. 1 GENERAL HOSPITAL
The following sums for No. 1 General Hospital, under command of Col. MacLaren, are gratefully acknowledged by the secretary of the St. John Ambulance Association:—All Saints Church, St. Andrews, $20; Greenock Church, St. Andrews, $10.75; Mrs. G. E. S. Keator $5.

ST. JOHN MAN SEES AIRSHIP BATTLE

French Aviator Sends Enemy Craft to Destruction as Sergt. Major Whitebone Looks On

A letter from E. A. Whitebone, sergeant major with the 2nd brigade, C. F. A., has been received from France by his mother, Mrs. J. Whitebone, of this city. It gives some interesting news concerning himself and his comrades on the firing line. He says he was through the big fight at Nerve Chappelle, and writes that his unit came through without losing a man, though the German casualties were heavy. As he was writing, he could hear the German shells going overhead, directed at a small town in their rear.

Sergt. Major Whitebone tells of having seen a German airship above their position, one day recently, taking stock of their guns. The airship was looking at them, but could not hit the enemy ship, as she was out of range. Suddenly, as it came out of the clouds, came another airship, a Frenchman, and after one puff of smoke the German craft was seen to drop rapidly, and the writer adds that that was the end of the airship's usefulness.

SAPPER QUIGG'S LETTERS

Interesting Accounts of Experiences at Front Sent to His Parents Here

Some very interesting letters have been received recently from Sapper L. G. Quigg by his parents who reside at 221 Main street. He has been in France since the early part of February, and his experiences since that time in the trenches and in action are interesting.

A letter dated France, March 20, is one of the best. It reads in part as follows:—
"Leaving Bristol (Eng.) 2,000 men and 600 horses set out for the front on February 1. It was rough and the boat was crowded so we did not enjoy the trip. A torpedo destroyer accompanied us all the way. We went through the channel and into the Bay of Biscay where we struck a terrible storm. I never want to go through one like it again. The boat got lost and went 400 miles out of her course. Finally we arrived at a port in the south of France five days late. We disembarked and our infantry got goat-skin coats and we had our rifles issued to us."

"We were packed into box cars, forty men to a car and we were so crowded that we slept sitting up. We traveled to Belgium where we held some trenches for about a week's time. Then we backed up and came back to France and relieved a British division in the trenches where we are at the present time."

"The trenches are somewhat similar to ditches dug for water mains in St. John, only they are deeper and have sandbags in front to stop the bullets. Between the German trenches and ours are three or four dead bodies that have been there, some of them, for four months, and they are decomposing. Conditions will be no better if there is no rain in advance before the warm weather comes."

In other letters Mr. Quigg describes the life at the front, how the soldiers are billeted and the fare they get. His accounts are brimful of interest.

AARON TRAFTON DEAD

The death of Aaron Trafton, at the advanced age of eighty-three years, occurred this morning at the residence of his son, Fred LeB. Trafton, 53 Elm street, after a long illness. He is survived by two sons, Fred LeB. and Leonard W. of Fairville, and four daughters, Mrs. R. Seward and Mrs. C. Belding of Chance Harbor, Miss Maud LeB. and Miss Susie F. of this city. Mr. Trafton was a native of the Parish of Miramichi and lived there until twenty-four years ago, when he removed to Fairville. On the death of his wife, twelve years ago, he removed to the North End. He was a boat builder by trade and was well known throughout the city. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from 53 Elm street.

NICE BIRTHDAY GIFT
A pleasant surprise was tendered Mrs. Roy F. Potts last evening at her home, 101 Middle street, when friends called and presented to her an amethyst pendant, the occasion being her birthday. A good time was spent in games, etc. The prize winners were H. Swain, J. Downey, M. Long, W. Duval, M. Harrison and Mrs. V. Duval. Refreshments were served and the gathering dispersed about midnight.

Tomorrow --- Sunday Mother's Day

It is scarcely probable that any of us need be reminded of our mothers, yet the thought which inspires the universal observance of Mother's Day is a beautiful one. The founder of Mother's Day is Miss Anna Jarvis of Philadelphia. Its object is to honor and uplift motherhood, and to give comfort and happiness to "The best mother who ever lived—Your Mother." To be observed in remembrance of your mother (or her memory) through some distinct act of kindness or letter. The floral badge of Mother's Day is a white flower, preferably a white carnation.

Mother's Day always comes on the second Sunday in May; but our salespeople and others on our staff will observe the day by wearing a White Carnation today as well as on Sunday.

GREATER OAK HALL

After Moving

you will surely want a few pieces of new furniture, a rug, linoleum or something else to brighten up the home and place your furnishings more in keeping with the freshly-decorated rooms.

There will never be a better opportunity to purchase furniture or carpets than is afforded right now, when our stock has all been purchased at rock-bottom prices, and is being sold on the same basis.

Owing to increased cost of production, an advance in manufacturers' prices is inevitable, and we do not know from day to day how long our present prices will obtain, so that a purchase of house furnishings now is sure to prove a profitable investment, and one on which you will congratulate yourself in the future.
